

may vote by proxy, such proxy being a stockholder, and authorized in writing.

5. Each and every shareholder in the said Corporation shall be held liable to the said Company for each and every call or assessment made, not however to exceed in amount the stock subscribed by him, for the purpose of enabling the said Company to pay the debts and engagements of the said Corporation, or for the purposes of or to carry on the operations for which the said Company is incorporated, which call or assessment may be sued for by the said Corporation, and recovered in any Court of Record within the Province.

6. The Company, or the Directors, if empowered by the bye laws of the Corporation, shall have power to levy and collect assessments upon the shares from time to time, of such sums of money as may be deemed necessary for carrying on the business, or for the purposes or operations of the said Company; and whenever any assessment shall be made as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to give notice thereof in a newspaper published and printed in the County of Northumberland, requiring payment of the same within thirty days; and if any stockholder shall neglect or refuse to pay the Treasurer the amount of such assessment upon his shares, or any part of such amount, at the time prescribed, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to advertise all such delinquent shares for sale at public auction, giving at least thirty days notice of the time and place of such sale; and all shares upon which the assessment, or any part thereof, is not paid, with interest from the time such assessment became due, shall be sold to the highest bidder; and after retaining the amount due on such assessment, and interest due thereon, and the expense of advertising and selling, the residue (if any) shall be paid over to the former owner, and a new certificate or certificates of the shares so sold shall be made out and delivered to the purchaser.

7. The time and place of holding annual and special meetings of the Corporation, as also the number, eligibility, duties and powers of Directors, officers, and servants, their continuation in office, removal, or disqualification, and the manner of election or appointment, and any other matter connected with the objects and purposes for which the said Company is incorporated, may be established or regulated by bye laws of the Company made at any meeting of the Company, or adjournment thereof.

8. The joint property and stock of the said Company shall alone be responsible for the engagements and debts of the said Company.

9. Unless ten per cent. of the said capital stock shall be actually paid in for the purposes of the said Corporation, and a certificate of such payment signed and verified on oath by the said Directors, or a majority of them, (which oath any Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to administer,) shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Province before the expiration of three years after the passing of this Act, the operation of this Act shall cease, and in that event the existence of the said Corporation shall then be terminated.

10. The said Company shall and may, as occasion may require, sell, mortgage, or dispose of any steam or other boat or vessel, or any property or effects of the Company not required for the uses of the Company.

11. Any copy of the bye laws of said Company, or any of them purporting to be under the hand of the Secretary, and having the seal of the Company affixed, shall be received as prima facie evidence of such bye laws in all Courts of this Province.
