

thereof by posting such notice in three public places in the said Parish, requiring payment of the same within twenty days at the office or the place of business of the said Company; in case of non-payment the delinquent shares may be sold at public auction, after twenty days notice, to the highest bidder, and after retaining the amount of the call and interest of the same, and all expenses, the residue, if any, shall be paid over to the former owner, and a new certificate of the shares sold shall be made out and delivered to the purchaser; provided always, that no call shall be made except by a vote of the shareholders, or a majority of those present at any meeting called as provided for.

11. In any action to be brought by the said Company against any shareholder to recover any money due for any call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient for the said Company to declare that the defendant is the holder of one share or more in the said Company, stating the number of shares, and is indebted to the said Company in the sum to which the calls in arrear shall amount, in respect of one call or more upon one share or more, stating the number and amount of each of such calls, whereby the action hath accrued to the Company by virtue of this Act.

12. On the trial or hearing of such action or suit, it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant, at the time of making such call, was the holder of one share or more in the said undertaking, and that such call was in fact made, and such notice thereof given, as directed by this Act; it shall not be necessary to prove any other matter whatsoever, and thereupon the Company shall be entitled to recover what is due upon such call, with interest and costs.

13. The production of the register of shareholders shall be prima facie evidence of such defendant being a shareholder, and of the number and amount of his shares.

14. All meetings of the Company shall be called by notice of the meeting being given by the President, or any two of the Directors, of the time and place of such meeting, such notice to be posted in three public places in the said Parish at least eight days before the time of meeting; special meetings may be called by the Directors, or by shareholders representing not less than twenty shares, upon giving the like notice.

15. No shareholder shall be entitled to transfer a vote upon any share after any call shall have been made in respect thereof, until he or she shall have paid all calls for the time being, and on every share held by him or them.

16. No dividend shall be paid in respect of any share until all calls then due in respect of that and every other share held by the person to whom such dividend may be payable shall have been paid.
