Passed 17th May 1871.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That it shall and may be lawful for the Roman Catholic Bishop of Chatham to sell and dispose, either at public auction or private contract, of the undivided interest of the said Corporation, of and to a certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Richibucto, in the County of Kent, bounded and described as follows, viz:—On the east or front by Water Street in the said Town, on the north by land owned by one Daniel O'Leary, and occupied by one George Beattie, on the west by lands deeded by one Hugh Nowlan to one John DeCourcy on or about the sixth day of August 1860, and on the south by Shedder Street in the said Town, being the same piece of land occupied by the said Hugh Nowlan at the time of his death, and devised by him to the Bishop and Corporation of the Catholic Church in the Province of New Brunswick, for the benefit of the Catholic Chapel then being erected in the Parish of Richibucto, in the said County, in and by his last Will and Testament, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, A. D. 1860, and duly recorded and proved in the Probate Court of the said County; and also to sell and dispose, either at public auction or private contract, of a certain other piece of land situate in the Village of Kingston, in the Parish of Richibucto aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, that is to say,—“All that certain lot of land situate on the north side of the Richibucto River near the Kingston bridge, and bounded and described as follows, viz:—On the east by Owen M'Inerney's lot, on the north by the Malley property (so called), on the west by the Joseph Price lot (so called), and on the south by the River, containing one-third of an acre more or less,” being the same piece of land conveyed to one Cain Spellain by one Amos B. Chandler, by deed bearing date the thirty first day of May, A. D. 1869, duly recorded in the Kent County Records; also to sell and dispose, either at public auction or private contract, of a certain other piece of land situate in the Village of Kingston aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, that is to say,—“All that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Richibucto, in the County of Kent aforesaid, commencing at a stake standing on the south side of the road leading from the Post Road to the Presbyterian Church, and being the northwest boundary of land owned by Owen M'Inerney; thence along said road south eighty three degrees west forty feet, to a stake; thence south eleven degrees thirty minutes east one hundred and sixty eight feet four inches, to a stake; thence north eighty three degrees east forty feet to a stake, the southwest boundary of the said piece of land owned by the said Owen M'Inerney; thence along the west line of said piece of land north eleven degrees thirty minutes one hundred and sixty eight feet four inches, to the stake the place of beginning, containing twenty four perches more or less,” being the same piece of land conveyed by one L. P. W. DesBrisay to one Cain Spellain, by deed bearing date the third day of October, A. D. 1864; the said last two mentioned pieces and parcels of land being devised to the said Roman Catholic Bishop of Chatham by the last Will and Testament of the said Cain Spellain, duly recorded and proved in the Probate Court in the said County of Kent, and bearing date the eighth day of December, A. D. 1867.

2. The said lots or parcels of lands, with the appurtenances, may be sold and disposed of in one lot, or in separate parcels, by way of mortgage, or in fee simple, either absolutely or conditionally, in such manner, and subject to such conditions, covenants, and agreements, as by the said Corporation may be deemed necessary and proper; and thereupon the said Corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to make good, legal and sufficient conveyances of the same, by and under the seal of the said Corporation; and the respective purchaser or purchasers, mortgagee or mortgagees thereof, shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys.

3. The proceeds of the sale of the said first mentioned lot shall be applied according to the provisions of the said last Will and Testament of the said Hugh Nowlan.

4. The proceeds of the sale of the said two last mentioned lots shall be applied to the use of the said Corporation.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act to authorize the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestry of Saint Paul's Church, in the Parish of Saint Paul, in the County of Saint John, to receive and hold gifts and bequests for charitable and pious uses.

Secs. 1 & 2.—Rector, &c. authorized to hold gifts, &c.

Passed 17th May, 1871.

WHEREAS Ann Simonds, late of the City of Saint John, Spinster, deceased, by her last Will and Testament, bearing date the twenty ninth day of July, A. D. 1865, did amongst other things devise and direct as follows, that is to say:—“Whereas I am desirous of providing means for the relief, in small annual sums of not exceeding ten pounds to each, of respectable poor unmarried women of over fifty years of age, residents of the Parish of Portland, or of the City of Saint John, now, I do hereby for that purpose devise unto and to the use of my said nephew, Thomas Gilbert, the Reverend William Scovil, and John M. Robinson, of the City of Saint John, Barrister at Law, and to the survivors and survivor of them and his heirs respectively, their and his assigns, a part of the land purchased by me of John Thomas Murray, situate in the Parish of Portland aforesaid, as follows—“Commencing on the northern side of Charles Street at a point distant one hundred feet westerly from the junction of Charles Street and Simonds Street; thence running northerly at right angles to Charles Street seventy eight feet, thence easterly and parallel with Charles Street twenty five feet, thence northerly and parallel with Simonds
