BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That William Wedderburn, Benjamin Lester Peters, John V. Ellis, William F. Bunting, William F. Dibblee, Isaac W. Doherty, Benjamin R. Stevenson, David Main, Robert Marshall, John Richards, James M'Nichol, Junior, Alfred A. Stockton, Thomas Irving, Edward Willis, and Mark N. Powers, their associates, successors and assigns, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The New Brunswick Masonic Hall Company," and by and under the said name shall have all the general powers and privileges made incident to a Corporation by Act of the General Assembly of this Province, and may acquire for themselves and their successors and assigns under any legal title whatsoever, such real and personal estate as they may require, provided that such real estate shall not exceed in value the sum of two hundred thousand dollars; and the Directors thereof for the time being may sell, lease, underlet, assign, transfer, convey and

exchange any such real and personal estate, lands, tenements and hereditaments, held or to be held by the said "The New Brunswick Masonic Hall Company," and for such price or prices, and on such trusts, terms and conditions as they may see fit, and grant valid and sufficient discharges on such price or prices, or other moneys; and should they see fit, acquire other lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises instead thereof, or in addition thereto; and the said Directors may borrow money on mortgage or other security of the said property of the said Corporation or on any part thereof, for such time and on such terms and at such rates of interest as they shall see fit.

2. The capital stock of the Company shall be one hundred thousand dollars currency, divided into five thousand shares of twenty dollars each.

3. The said William Wedderburn, Benjamin Lester Peters, John V. Ellis, William F. Bunting, William F. Dibblee, Isaac W. Doherty, Benjamin R. Stevenson, David Main, Robert Marshall, John Richards, James M'Nichol, Junior, Alfred A. Stockton, Thomas Irving, Edward Willis, and Mark N. Powers, shall be the Directors of the Company until a choice of Directors by election of the shareholders shall take place in the manner hereinafter prescribed; and they shall have power to open books for the subscription of shares, and to make and collect calls thereon.

4. The Directors, or a majority of them, may open a subscription book and receive the subscriptions of persons desirous of becoming shareholders in the Company, and may allot to such persons the number of shares that each or any of them shall have in the capital of the said Company.

5. The shares in the capital of the Company shall be transferable in such manner as shall from time to time be prescribed by the bye laws; but no share shall be transferable until all the calls previously made thereon shall have been declared forfeited for non-payment of calls.

6. The Company may administer their affairs by any number of Directors to be elected annually from among the shareholders at their annual meeting, their number and qualification being declared in the rules of the said Company, and by such other officers, under such restrictions touching their powers and duties, as by law in that behalf they may from time to time ordain; and they may assign and pay to any such officer such remuneration as they may deem requisite; and such Directors shall always hold office till their successors are elected.

7. An annual meeting of the Company shall be held for the transaction of the general business of the Company and the election of Directors, at such time and place, and under such regulations, with regard to notice, as the bye laws of the Company shall determine; and until it shall be so determined, the first annual meeting shall be held on the first Monday in June, at such place and hour as shall be appointed by the said William Wedderburn, Benjamin Lester Peters, and John V. Ellis, or any one of them; and they are, or any one of them is hereby authorized to call and summon the said meeting, which meeting may be adjourned from time to time; and in case of a vacancy occurring among the Directors by death, resignation, or otherwise, at any time previous to the annual meeting, the same shall be filled up for the remainder of the unoccupied time by the Directors, if by them deemed expedient, or by so many of them as may be prescribed by the bye laws of the Company.
