

BY AUTHORITY.

ANNO TRICESIMO SEXTO VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to indemnify and protect owners of improved Lands or Meadows against damage in certain cases.

Sec.	Sec.
1 Damages, against whom recoverable.	2 What constitutes sufficient evidence of responsibility.

Passed 14th April, 1873.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. Whenever damage or loss shall occur or be occasioned to any improved lands or meadows by reason of sawdust, edgings, slabs, trimmings, or other mill refuse thrown or falling into any river, stream or creek from any mill, the owner or owners of such mill, any or either of them, or the manager, lessee, agent or person in charge of such mill, or any laborer therein, by whose wilful or negligent act such damage shall occur, any or either of them shall be responsible and liable to the parties injured for such damage, and a recovery against any of the said parties for such damage shall be an answer and bar to any action for the same damage against any other of the said parties.

2. Proof of the responsibility of the party or parties under the first section of this Act, and of the damage occasioned as aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence to enable the party or parties sustaining such injury to recover to the amount or extent thereof, with costs, in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to authorize certain persons in the Parish of Eldon, in the County of Restigouche, to poll their votes in the Parish of Addington.

Sec.	Sec.
1 What persons are authorized to vote in Parish of Addington.	3 Revisors may place name of voter on Revised List.
2 Persons wishing to vote in Addington must place their names on Revised List.	4 Not to affect resident of Eldon who has sufficient property in Addington.

Passed 14th April, 1873.

WHEREAS it is desirable that certain persons resident in the Parish of Eldon, in the County of Restigouche, should be allowed to poll their votes in the Parish of Addington, in the County aforesaid, at the Election of Members to serve in the General Assembly;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. Every male person of the age of twenty one years, being a British subject, not subject to any legal incapacity, resident in the said Parish of Eldon, and possessed of a freehold estate situate in the said Parish of Eldon, of the value of one hundred dollars, may and he is hereby authorized to vote in the Parish of Addington, in the said County, at the Election of Members to serve in the General Assembly for the County of Restigouche, upon his name being placed upon the Revised List of the said Parish of Addington, under the provisions of this Act.

2. Any such person wishing his name to be placed on the Revised List of the said Parish of Addington, shall, on or before the twenty fifth day of October in each year, make and subscribe before the Revisors of the Parish of Addington, or one of them, the following affidavit under oath, which oath the said Revisors or any one of them are hereby authorized to administer:—

“I, A. B., do hereby make oath and say I am a British subject of the full age of twenty one years, I reside in the Parish of Eldon, in the County of Restigouche, and am possessed of a freehold estate therein of the full value of one hundred dollars, and that I am not subject to any legal incapacity.”

Which affidavit shall be signed by the party making it, or if unable to write he shall affix his mark thereto, and the Revisor or Revisors who administer the oath shall attach thereto a certificate or memorandum of his so administering the oath.

3. The Revisors for the said Parish of Addington shall thereupon add the name of every such person to the Revised List for the Parish of Addington, transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace under the provisions of the seventh section of an Act made and passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the Election of Members to serve in the General Assembly, in the same manner as if such person was a duly qualified elector of the Parish of Addington; and such person shall, until a new Revised List be made out and transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace for the said Parish of Addington, be deemed and taken to be a duly qualified elector of the Parish of Addington for Members to serve in the General Assembly for said County.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to any resident of the Parish of Eldon who may be assessed in the Parish of Addington, in respect of property sufficient to qualify him as an elector of the said Parish of Addington, by virtue of any Act or Acts heretofore or hereafter in force relating to the Election of Members to serve in the General Assembly.
