

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869.

In the matter of George H. Gray, an Insolvent.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THERE will be sold at Public Auction, on Saturday the fifteenth day of March next, at twelve o'clock noon, on the premises, all the Insolvent's right, title and interest in and to that certain lot, piece or parcel of Land, with the buildings and erections thereon, situate, lying and being in the Parish of Kingston, in King's County, and described as follows:—Beginning at a marked ash tree standing on the bank near the River Saint John, thence running in a straight line south a little easterly to a marked willow tree standing in the old dam to the north and east of the mill; thence by another straight line to another marked willow tree standing in the fence; and from thence to another marked willow tree standing near to and easterly of the said fence; thence in a straight line to a certain marked white birch tree standing on the northwest side of the highway; thence southeasterly across the said highway to a cedar post placed alongside a large rock; thence northeasterly to another cedar post close to a bunch of alders, and near the eastern bank of the watercourse or privilege; thence from the said cedar post, and following the highest flow of the water privilege on the eastern side thereof until it strikes a marked cedar post on the division line between the lot now or formerly owned or occupied by one Christopher Nutter and the herein described Lot; thence running in a northwest direction and following the said division line to the River Saint John aforesaid, containing sixteen acres, more or less, and embracing within the bounds of the said described piece of Land all the rights and privileges appurtenant to the frontage thereof on the River Saint John, together with all the water privileges belonging or in any wise appurtenant thereto, and all the dams, sluices, erections, buildings, mills, and improvements thereon standing or in any way thereto appertaining, being the lot of Land and premises lately occupied by the Insolvent as a milling establishment.

The above sale will be made pursuant to an order of the Judge.

For terms and particulars, apply to the Assignee at St. John. Dated February 11th, 1873.
