BY AUTHORITY.

By His Honor The Honorable SAMUEL LEONARD
TILLEY, C. B., Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

S. L. TILLEY.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty fourth day of September instant, I have thought fit further to prorogue the said General Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued accordingly to Thursday the fifth day of November next.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the twenty third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy four, and in the thirty eighth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By Command of the Lieutenant Governor.

JNO. JAS. FRASER.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

PAPERS on the best mode of obtaining County valuations of Property, for the purpose of Local Taxation, and of Assessing, levying and collecting Rates and Taxes, and dealing generally with the principles which would secure equitable taxation, in reference to income and property, for local purposes, will be received at the Office of the Provincial Secretary up to the 1st January next.

$200 will be awarded to the writer of what may be considered the best Paper on the above subject, and $100 to the second best.

THE Lieutenant Governor directs the publication of the following, for general information.

37 & 38 VICTORIA, CHAPTER 41.

An Act to amend "The Colonial Attornies Relief Act."

[30th July, 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Colonial Attornies Relief Act certain provisions are made for regulating the admission of Attornies and Solicitors of Colonial Courts in Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law and Equity in England in certain cases, and it is considered just and equitable to amend the said Act;

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. So much of the Colonial Attornies Relief Act as enacts that no person shall be deemed qualified to be admitted as Attorney or Solicitor under the provisions of the said Act unless he shall pass an examination to test his fitness and capacity, and shall further make affidavit that he has ceased for the space of twelve calendar months at the least to practise as Attorney or Solicitor in any Colonial Court of Law, and also so much of the said Act and of any orders and regulations made thereunder as relate to such examination, shall not apply to nor shall compliance therewith respectively be required of any person seeking to be admitted as Attorney or Solicitor under the provisions of the said Act who shall have been in actual practice for the period of seven years at the least as Attorney and Solicitor in any Colony or Dependency as to which an Order in Council has been or may be made as mentioned in the said Act, and who shall have served under articles and passed an examination previously to his admission as Attorney and Solicitor in any such Colony or Dependency.

2. The expression "The Colonial Attornies Relief Act" shall henceforth be deemed to include this Act.

(CIRCULAR.)

Downing Street, 13th August, 1874.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the mutual surrender of Fugitive Criminals, as well as a copy of the Order in Council of the 6th instant, for carrying into effect that Treaty.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,
CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering the Government of New Brunswick.

[Extract from the London Gazette of Friday, August 7, 1874.]

AT THE COURT AT OSBORNE HOUSE, ISLE OF WIGHT,

The 6th day of August, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty third and thirty fourth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any Foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such Foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the nineteenth day of June last between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and
