| 1 Number of Trustees to be elected. | 3 Trustees, how elected. |
| 2 Application of Act.               |                          |

Passed 8th April, 1874.

WHEREAS in and by the first Section of the said Act it is among other things enacted, that the pewowners and male communicants shall assemble on the first Wednesday in June in each year, or within ten days thereafter, and then and there by a plurality of voices of the said pewholders and male communicants aforesaid then present, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and three o'clock in the afternoon, elect and choose any number not exceeding twelve persons nor less than five as aforesaid, so proprietors of pews as aforesaid, to be trustees for the purposes of the said Act; and whereas doubts exist as to the right of such annual meeting to limit the number of trustees to less than twelve; and whereas it has been found inconvenient in the management of the affairs of the Corporation of Saint Andrews Church in the City of Saint John;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That on the assembling of the pewowners and male communicants of Saint Andrews Church in the City of Saint John at such annual meeting, on the day and at the time aforesaid, such meeting shall, after the appointment of a Chairman and Secretary, declare by resolution what number of trustees shall be elected for the year then next ensuing, but which number in no case shall exceed twelve nor be less than five.

2. That this Act shall be taken as an addition to the said hereby amended Act, and only applicable to the management of the affairs of "Saint Andrews Church in the City of Saint John."

3. And further be it enacted, that the provisions of Chapter forty, passed in the thirty fifth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, shall not apply to the election of Trustees of the said Saint Andrews Church in the City of Saint John; but that the election of the Trustees of said Church shall be held and conducted under the several provisions of the hereinbefore recited Act, fourteenth Victoria, Chapter eight, intituled An Act to amend an Act relating to Churches erected or to be erected in this Province in connexion with the Established Church of Scotland, except as hereinbefore amended.

| Sec.                                    | Sec.  |
| 1 When property of Company may be sold. | 3 Conveyance of property to be under seal of Company. |
| 2 Sale of property, how made.           | 4 Proceeds of sale, how applied.                      |

Passed 8th April, 1874.

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That when and so soon as parties owning in all two-thirds of the Stock of the Petitecodiac Mining and Manufacturing Company, shall request the Directors to sell the real and personal estate, mining leases, and all other the property and effects, rights and privileges of the Company, such request to be shewn by a document in writing, signed by such stockholders, or their agents duly authorized, the Directors, or a major part of them, may order such sale to be made.

2. Such sale shall be made under the direction of the President or such other person as the Directors shall appoint, and may be made of the whole property together, or in separate parcels, at private sale or public auction; and if at public auction, the Directors and stockholders are severally allowed to bid.

3. Any conveyance executed pursuant to such sale shall be under the seal of the Company, verified by the President's signature, and shall be sufficient for conveying and assuring to the purchaser the property and estates thereby expressed to be conveyed, free from any trusts to the stockholders; and the purchaser shall not be bound to enquire whether such sale was made pursuant to the request of the stockholders, nor responsible for the due application of the purchase money.

4. Upon such sale or sales being completed, the Directors shall forthwith realize the proceeds, and after the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company, and defraying all the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to winding up the affairs of the Company, including therein, if they shall think proper, a reasonable compensation to the President for his services therein, shall divide the remaining assets of the Company among the stockholders pro rata according to the amount of their stock; provided that no stockholder shall be entitled to receive any dividend unless he shall have paid all calls due upon his stock.
