EXTRACTS from Chapter 12, Vol. I, Revised Statutes, 'Of Trespasses to Lands and other Property of the Crown.'

"1st. No person shall cut down any trees, lumber or wood of any description, on any Crown Lands, * * * or remove, use, injure or destroy any of such Crown property, without license from the Governor, or other legal authority, under the penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than twenty pounds for each offence.

"2nd. All trees, timber, wood, or other lumber of any description, which may be cut down, found on or removed from any Crown Lands, and any thing made therefrom, * * *

* * * or which shall be taken or detained from the Crown, without the license aforesaid, to be proved by the person claiming the same wherever prosecuted, shall be forfeited to the use of the Queen, and may be seized and prosecuted to condemnation by any person to be appointed for that purpose.

"3rd. Any thing which shall be seized as aforesaid shall be deemed to be condemned, unless the claimant, within fourteen days thereafter, deliver a notice in writing to the Seizing Officer, specifying particularly the property to which his claim applies, and when so condemned, the same may be forthwith sold at Public Auction by the Seizing Officer, after ten days' public notice.

"4th. Any person who shall assault or obstruct any Seizing Officer in the execution of his duty, or any person in his aid, or who shall wilfully remove, cut or set loose any thing seized as aforesaid, shall pay a fine to the Queen not exceeding one hundred pounds, nor less than two pounds, at the discretion of the Court where prosecuted, and if not paid after conviction, such person shall be imprisoned not exceeding one year, nor less than ten days, at the like discretion."

REGULATIONS for carrying out the "Act to facilitate the settlement of Crown Lands," (Labour Act).

4th. He shall, within two years after publication of his approval, transmit to the Surveyor General a Certificate attested to by himself on oath before a Magistrate, and certified by two of his neighbours, that he has built a house fit for occupancy upon the lot, of not less dimensions than sixteen by twenty feet, and is then residing therein, and that he has cleared and had cultivated in the previous year at least two acres of the said lot.

* * *
6th. Before he [the Locatee] shall be permitted to cut any Timber or Lumber, (except that cut in clearing the land for cultivation,) he shall transmit to the Surveyor General a Certificate as prescribed in Section 4, and also a Certificate from the Commissioner that he has performed the necessary amount of labour.

[No. 873.]

CROWN LAND OFFICE, 29th July, 1874.

THE right of cutting WILD GRASS for the present year upon vacant Crown Lands, will be offered for sale at this Office immediately after the sales of Timber Licenses in the respective Districts.
