INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869.

In the matter of John Calhoun, an Insolvent.

THERE will be sold by Public Auction, at the Court House, Hopewell Cape, Albert County, in the Province of New Brunswick, on Friday the first day of October, A. D. 1875, at one o'clock, P. M., all the right, title and interest of the above named Insolvent in and to the following Lots or Tracts of Land, that is to say:—

“A certain Lot of Woodland situate in the Parish of Hopewell, County of Albert, in the second tier of lots, bounded and described as follows:—Commencing at a birch tree marked W. D. standing in the southeasterly angle of said lot, on the line of land formerly belonging to one Henry J. Bennett and Albert Bennett, thence northerly nineteen chains to a small marked maple tree, thence westerly nineteen chains, thence southerly parallel to the first mentioned line and a prolongation thereof until it comes to the base or rear line of the front lots, thence northwesterly to the first mentioned boundary, containing fifty acres more or less; being the same piece and parcel of Land formerly conveyed by one Elias Edgett to Henry J. Bennett, and by the said Bennett conveyed to the said John Calhoun.”

Also—“All that piece or parcel of Land situate in Hopewell aforesaid, and bounded as follows, viz: Commencing at the Bay Shore on the line between lands lately conveyed by W. M. Bennett to the said John Calhoun and Henry J. Bennett, and lands of E. Dowling, and running along said line westwardly to the old Shipyard Spring, so called; thence running southwardly and parallel to the Great Road to the line between lands lately owned by George Calhoun, Esquire, and lands of the said Dowling; thence running along said line eastwardly to the Bay Shore; thence following the shore northwardly to the place of beginning; containing one acre more or less.”

Also—“All that piece or parcel of Woodland situate in Hopewell aforesaid, and bounded as follows: Commencing on the north side of Lizard Brook, by the side of the old Great Road, and following the side thereof to lands formerly owned by Rebecca, wife of James Brewster, Esquire; thence westwardly along the said Rebecca's land to the rear; thence southwardly along the rear to lands owned by Ebenezer Wilbur; thence eastwardly along said Wilbur's land to a post at ten rods to the westward of where the said Wilbur's line crosses the said brook; thence by a line northwardly and perpendicular to said Wilbur's line, to a point where it will intersect a line running from the side of the Great Road at the north side of said brook, and running parallel to the said Wilbur's line, and containing forty acres more or less.”

Also—“The following described Lot of Land and Premises situate in Hillsborough aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, that is to say: On the north by John G. Steeves, on the west by the rear line of the Grant or Lot, on the south by the land of the heirs of the late Captain Edwin Bennett, and on the east by the Petitcodiac River, containing one hundred and seventy one acres; excepting and reserving nevertheless, twenty acres off the point of the said lot bounding on the said River, and extending back the whole width of the lot sufficient distance to contain twenty acres aforesaid, which John Lewis and Mary Lewis his wife reserve to themselves,” as expressed in the Deed from them to the said John Calhoun of the said described lot of land.

Also—“A right of way from the said Great Road over and across the lands of the said John Lewis and Mary Lewis, to the said last described lot of land and premises, for all purposes connected with the use, occupation and enjoyment of the said lot of land.”

Terms—Cash.
