

visions of this or the said recited Act, any such fact when proved, shall be deemed and taken to be prima facie evidence that a sale of liquors has taken place contrary to the provisions of the second and third Sections of this Act, and such tavern, hotel, or inn keeper, may thereupon be convicted of an offence against either of such Sections, as the case may be.

11. The Police Magistrate may by summons (Form F), or by warrant (Form G), or as near as may be, if the summons be disobeyed, compel the attendance of any person other than the party charged with an offence under this Act, or the wife of the party charged with an offence under this Act, to give evidence upon the trial of any offender against the provisions of this Act, and may adjourn such trial from time to time until the attendance of such person is procured.

12. There shall not be allowed in the bar room of any tavern, or of any hotel or inn, more than one door or place of ingress thereto or egress therefrom, and if more than one door or place of ingress or egress is proved to exist in any such bar room, except as hereinafter provided, the occupant or person licensed to keep such bar room shall be liable to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, and the continuation or existence of any such additional door or place of ingress or egress, after any conviction therefor, shall be taken and deemed to be a new offence under this Section.

13. There shall not be allowed in the bar room of any tavern, or of any hotel or inn, with the exception of the means of ingress thereto and egress therefrom, any door, window, passage, opening, slide or other means of communication, between such bar room and any other room or place in such tavern, hotel, or inn, and if such door, window, passage, opening, slide or other means of communication, except permitted as hereinafter provided, be proved to exist, the occupant of or person licensed to keep such bar room shall be liable to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars; and the continuation or existence of any such door, window, passage, opening, slide, or other means of communication, after any conviction therefor, shall be taken and deemed to be a new offence under this Section.

14. Notwithstanding the provisions of the two preceding Sections, the Mayor of the said City may by indorsement on the license granted under the authority of this Act to any person, permit and suffer such person to have two or more doors or passages leading into his bar room, and so long as such permission continues such person shall be exempt from the penalties imposed by the said Sections, and the Mayor shall upon breach of any of the provisions of this Act by such person have power to revoke such permission; and further provided, that the provisions of such Sections shall not apply to doors or passages between the premises used by the same occupant or owner for wholesale and retail business.

15. For any violation of the second Section of this Act other than that for which a penalty is provided by the third Section hereof, the offender shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each offence.

16. A copy of this Act shall be furnished by the authorities empowered by law to issue licenses to each licensee at the time of his or her receiving license.

17. Penalties imposed by this and the said recited Act shall be recovered, with costs, in the name of the Queen, and applied in the same manner as directed by the said recited Act to which this Act is an addition.

18. In all cases where evidence is offered under the seventh and tenth Sections of this Act, the person against whom such evidence is given, and his wife, shall be competent witnesses in his behalf.

19. This Act shall be taken and construed to be part of and in addition to the said recited Act passed in the twenty fourth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, and the clauses and provisions of such recited Act shall, if and so far as applicable, be taken and construed to be part of this Act.

20. The term "Police Magistrate," shall include any sitting Magistrate, whilst acting as such; and the term "Officers of the Peace," shall include the Chief of Police and any Policeman on the Police force of the City of Saint John.

21. So much of the provisions of the following Acts, that is to say—An Act made and passed in the thirty fourth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act in addition to an Act intituled An Act to regulate the sale of Spirituous Liquors in the City and County of Saint John, and an Act made and passed in the thirty sixth year of Her said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act in addition to and in amendment of the several Acts regulating the sale of Spirituous Liquors in the City and County of Saint John; also, an Act made and passed in the thirty seventh year of Her said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to remove doubts as to the meaning of an Act intituled An Act in addition to and in amendment of the several Acts regulating the sale of Spirituous Liquors in the City and County of Saint John, as relates to the City of Saint John, is hereby repealed.
