

street or public place, and to seize and destroy all tainted and unwholesome meat, poultry, fish or other articles of food, and to impose and recover such reasonable penalties as may be found proper upon the person or persons exposing for sale such tainted or unwholesome articles within the said Town :

5th.—To regulate the assize of bread, and provide for the seizure of bread baked contrary thereto, and to impose penalties upon the person so baking contrary to the provisions of any bye-laws to be made in that behalf :

6th.—To regulate the anchorage, lading and unlading of vessels and other craft arriving at the said Town :

7th.—To regulate and provide for the erection, management and rent of wharves, piers, quays, landings and docks in the said Town, and the toll to be paid for vessels and steamboats touching thereat or using the same, and to prevent the filling up or encumbering the River Petitcodiac within the said Town, or impeding the free navigation thereof, and to regulate and establish ferries within the limits of or belonging to the said Town :

8th.—To regulate Carters, Wagoners and Cartmen, the price to be paid to them for hauling loads in the said Town, and the quantity to comprise a load :

9th.—To punish vice and immorality and indecency in the streets or other public places within the Town :

10th.—To prevent the spreading of infectious or other diseases :

11th.—To prevent excessive beating or other cruel and inhuman treatment of animals :

12th.—To license, regulate or prevent billiard tables, bowling alleys, or other places of amusement :

13th.—To restrain or to regulate the licensing of all exhibitions of natural or artificial curiosities, and all theatres, circuses, and other shows or exhibitions for hire or profit :

14th.—To establish and regulate one or more Pounds, and the fees to be taken thereat :

15th.—To restrain, regulate or prevent the running at large of horses, cattle, swine, goats, sheep, dogs, geese and poultry, and to impound the same :

16th.—To impose a tax on the owners or harbourers of dogs, and to regulate and prevent dogs running at large, and to provide for killing such as are found so running at large contrary to any law or bye-law, after public notice given :

17th.—To abate and cause to be removed all public nuisances, and all filth or incumbrances in the streets :

18th.—To regulate the construction of privy vaults and sinks on private property :

19th.—To cause vacant lots in central situations when they become nuisances, to be properly enclosed at the cost and expense of the owners, and to recover such expenses, with costs, in a summary manner :

20th.—To prevent the ringing of bells, blowing of horns, shouting, and other unusual noises in the streets and other public places :

21st.—To purchase, enclose, plant, lay out and adorn any public square, park or parade for the use of the Town, and to make and ordain rules for the government and preservation thereof, and to impose penalties and punishment, by fine or imprisonment, or both, for the violation or non-observance of such rules :

22nd.—To prevent the injuring or destroying of trees planted within any of the streets or public grounds of the said Town :

23rd.—To prevent immoderate driving or riding within the Town :

24th.—To regulate and license owners of livery stables or other owners of horses or carriages letting out the same for hire or profit, and also porters, butchers, and hucksters :

25th.—To establish a Police for the said Town :

26th.—To erect preserves and regulate public cisterns, reservoirs and public conveniences for the supply of good and wholesome water, and for the extinguishing of fires, and to make reasonable charges for the use thereof :

27th.—To establish, make and regulate public fountains, pumps, and wells, and to prevent the waste and fouling of public water :

28th.—To prevent or regulate the firing of guns or other fire arms :

29th.—To prevent or regulate the firing or setting off of squibs, fire-balls, crackers, or other fire works :

30th.—To regulate the keeping or transporting of gun-powder or other combustible or dangerous substances :

31st.—To regulate and require the safe keeping of ashes in proper deposits :

32nd.—To enforce the proper cleaning of chimneys :

33rd.—To regulate the number of fire buckets to be provided by the several inhabitants, and the time and manner in which they shall be so provided, and also to provide for the management and examination of such buckets and the use of them at fires :

34th.—To regulate the conduct and enforce the assistance of the inhabitants at fires, and for the preservation of property thereat :

35th.—To make regulations for the suppressing of fires and the pulling down or demolishing adjunct houses, and remunerating the owners thereof in certain circumstances :

36th.—To compel the owners or occupiers of houses to have ladders leading to and on the roof of such houses :

37th.—To establish and regulate engine, fire-hook, ladder and property saving Companies, and to provide and afford exemptions and immunities to the officers and members thereof :

38th.—To provide for the purchase of such and so many fire engines as they may deem necessary :

39th.—To provide for the payment of such premiums or rewards for early attendance of wagons and other vehicles with water at fires as to the said Town Council may from time to time seem expedient :

40th.—To appoint from time to time such and so many persons to be Firewards as the said Council may think proper, and to enact rules and regulations prescribing the duties of such Firewards :

41st.—To regulate the management and provide for the security of the public property of any kind belonging to the said Town, and to provide for the permanent improvement of the said Town in all matters, as well ornamental as useful :

42nd.—To provide for the erection, preservation and security of lamp-posts, sign-boards, and other fixtures within the Town :

43rd.—To provide for defraying out of the funds of the Town, if it be deemed necessary, the expense of lighting the same or any part thereof with gas, oil, or other substances, and for the performing of any kind of work required for the