

EXTRACT FROM "THE ACT TO FACILITATE THE SETTLEMENT OF CROWN LANDS."

Sec. 4.—Such person so located may, after having built a house as aforesaid, and cleared and cultivated two acres of the said land, and paid the twenty dollars advance, or performed labour on the Roads and Bridges to the extent of ten dollars or upwards, cut and haul lumber and timber from and off the said lot; but he shall not sell or otherwise dispose of the standing timber until he has obtained a grant of said lot.

REGULATIONS.

4th.—He shall within two years after publication of his approval, transmit to the Surveyor General a Certificate attested to by himself on oath before a Magistrate, and certified by two of his neighbours, that he has built a house fit for occupancy upon the lot, of not less dimensions than sixteen by twenty feet, and is then residing therein, and that he has cleared and had cultivated in the previous year at least four acres of the said lot.

6th.—Before he shall be permitted to cut any timber or lumber, (except that cut in clearing the land for cultivation), he shall transmit to the Surveyor General a Certificate as prescribed in Section 4, and also a Certificate from the Commissioner that he has performed the necessary amount of labour.

All such Locatees are expressly prohibited from cutting Lumber on lots so located to them, without first obtaining the license or permission in the said Sections and Regulations referred to.

And all Seizing Officers are hereby required to seize the Lumber cut on such lots without license.

And all Free Grants Act and Labour Act Commissioners, and persons appointed to scale Lumber on Crown Lands, are required to report to the Department or to the nearest or other Seizing Officer any Lumber that may be cut within their respective districts without such license, so that the same may be seized and forfeited to the Crown.

Crown Land Office, Fredericton, 14th Nov. 1877.
