(CIRCULAR.)

Downing Street, 22nd August, 1877.

SIR,—With reference to my Circular Despatch of the 2nd August, 1876, I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of the Queen in Council for giving effect to a Declaration concluded between the Government of Her Majesty and the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians on the 23rd July last, extending the provisions of the Extradition Treaty of the 20th May, 1876, to certain additional crimes.

The Declaration will come into operation on the 27th of this month.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant,
CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering
The Government of New Brunswick.

[Extract from the London Gazette of August 17th, 1877.]

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 13th day of August, 1877.

PRESENT :

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty third and thirty fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," and also by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty sixth and thirty seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Extradition Act, 1870," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient;

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy six, between Her Majesty and the King of the Belgians, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, to which Treaty the above mentioned Acts of Parliament were applied by an Order in Council of the twenty first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy six;

And whereas a Declaration was concluded on the twenty third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy seven, between the Government of Her Majesty and the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, extending the provisions of the above mentioned Treaty to certain additional crimes, which Declaration is in the terms following:—

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, having judged it expedient, with the view to the more complete prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of certain crimes in addition to those enumerated in Article I of the Treaty between Great Britain and Belgium for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, of the 20th of May, 1876, shall, under the provisions of that Treaty, be reciprocally delivered up, have agreed as follows:—

Persons charged as principals or accessories with or convicted of the undermentioned crimes committed in the territories of the one Party and who shall be found within the territories of the other Party, shall be reciprocally delivered up to each other under the circumstances and conditions stated in the Treaty between Great Britain and Belgium for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, of the 20th of May, 1876:—

1. Administering drugs or using instruments with intent to procure the miscarriage of women.
2. Bigamy.
3. Abandoning children, exposing or unlawfully detaining them.
4. Any malicious act done with intent to endanger persons in a railway train.
5. Receiving any chattel, money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been embezzled, stolen, or feloniously obtained.

The provisions of the present Declaration shall come
