Passed 5th September 1877.

WHEREAS doubts have existed as to the proper persons to revise the Electoral Lists in the present year, in Counties not incorporated prior to the coming into force of the Act of the last Session relating to Municipalities;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That the County Councillors of each Parish, with another person appointed therefor by the County Council, and in the case of there being three Councillors for a Parish, the three Councillors, and in the case of there being more than three Councillors for a Parish, the three Councillors selected by the County Council shall be deemed to be the Revisors for the present year; and when such appointment or selection has not been made by the County Council, it shall be made by the Councillors of the Parish.

2. Provided that when in any Parish the above mentioned persons have not acted as Revisors and duly posted the alphabetical lists of the qualified electors, but such lists have been already duly posted by the persons elected or appointed as Revisors prior to the coming into force of the Act of the last Session relating to Municipalities, such last mentioned persons shall be deemed to be the Revisors for the present year.

3. When alphabetical lists have not been already posted this present year, the notice shall fix the time for the meeting of the Revisors to revise the lists for the first day of November next, the time for giving notice of adding or striking off any name from such list to be on or before the tenth day of October next, and the time for the Revisors posting up the alphabetical lists of the persons proposed to be added or struck off shall be on or before the twentieth day of October next; and any person proposing to strike a name from the list shall on or before the tenth day of October give notice in writing to the party objected to, either personally or by leaving it at his last or usual place of abode, and shall prove on oath the giving the notice to the satisfaction of the Revisors before they hear the objection.

4. The time for the posting of the alphabetical list of the qualified electors shall for the present year be extended to the twenty fifth day of September instant.

5. This Act shall not extend to the City of Saint John or Fredericton, or to any incorporated Town being in itself a Parish.
