INSOLVENT ACT OF 1875,

And Amending Acts.

In the matter of Bowen Smith and James Barnes, individually, and as members of the Firm of "Smith & Barnes," Insolvents.

A MEETING of the creditors is hereby called, to be holden at the Weldon House, in Shediac, in the County of Westmorland, on Tuesday the second day of December next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of considering a further or renewed offer by the Insolvents to compound with their creditors, in consequence of the Insolvents not being able to carry out their present Deed of Composition and Discharge, and for the purpose of selling and disposing of the right, title and interest of the Insolvents and the Estate in that piece or parcel of land situate in Shediac, deeded to Bowen Smith and John Calder by William J. Hamilton and wife, by Indenture bearing date the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1874, and for the ordering of the affairs of the estate generally.

By order of the Inspectors.

Dated at Shediac, in the County of Westmorland, this 5th day of November, 1879.

A. TAIT, Assignee.
