

10. In cases tried at the Nisi Prius Sittings, or at any Circuit Court, it shall not be necessary to move for a Rule to set aside the verdict, or for judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a repleader, as is now the practice, but the party intending to move the Court shall give notice of motion to the Judge who tried the cause, and to the opposite party or his Attorney, and shall also deliver to the opposite party or his Attorney a statement of the grounds of the motion, and the authorities relied upon, which shall be printed when the same exceeds five folio, and shall file with the Clerk of the Pleas five copies of such statement for the use of the Court, on or before the first day of the Term so next following the trial; provided always, that the Court may for good cause shewn, extend the time for the giving of such notice and statement to a later day in the Term, or until the Term following; and provided further, that the party moving may, with leave of the Court, cite any authority which may have been given to the Counsel or Attorney of the opposite party before the cause comes on for argument.

11. All causes in which statements have been filed with the Clerk, as in the preceding Section mentioned, shall be entered on the special paper in the order in which the statements are so filed, and shall come on for argument in the order in which they are so entered, without any Rule Nisi having been granted; provided that when the Court shall sit in two Divisions, two special papers shall be made up if necessary, so that each cause shall be heard before the Division of which the Judge who tried the cause shall be a member, as herein provided.

13. The Court may, and it shall be its duty from time to time to alter, amend or regulate its practice in proceedings for certiorari or mandamus, or in other similar proceedings, so that such matters may, if possible, be heard and disposed of more expeditiously than according to the present practice.

14. The Court may and they are hereby required from time to time to make such general rules and orders as may be necessary for carrying the purposes and provisions of this Act into effect, and all general rules or orders made hereunder shall be laid before the Assembly within ten days from the opening of the Session next after the promulgation of any such rule or order.
