D. 1884, in a certain cause therein pending, wherein James Byrne is Plaintiff, and Edward J. Baxter, Charles N. Skinner, James A. Estey, and William Allwood, are Defendants, with the approbation of the undersigned Barrister, the mortgaged Premises described in the Plaintiff's Bill in said cause and in the said Decretal Order as—

"All and singular the following lots of Land, that is to say, all and singular that certain lot of Land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Norton, in the said County of King's, and in a Deed from Wesley Colpitts and others to said Edward John Baxter, dated the seventh day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy two, thus described:—All that certain lot, piece or parcel of Land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Norton aforesaid, being the farm and premises then lately owned and occupied by the said William Henry Baxter, deceased, and bounded and described and mentioned in his last Will and Testament as follows, viz:—My farm of land in Norton bounded on the northwest by the River Kennebecasis, on the northeast by land formerly sold by me to one William Morton, on the southeast by the rear line of the grant to Baxter, Studholm and others, and on the southwest by land owned by Sidney S. Baxter, excepting a gore sold to the late Mayes Case, containing in the whole nine hundred acres, more or less," which said Deed from the said Wesley Colpitts and others to the said Edward John Baxter is duly recorded in the Office of the Registrar of Deeds in and for the County of King's, in Book T, No. 2, of Records, pages 187 and 188. "Also all that other lot of Land situate, lying and being in the said Parish of Norton, in King's County, and in the Deed thereof from Alexander Case and others to Farabee Baxter and the said Edward John Baxter, thus described:—Beginning at the southwest corner of land deeded to William Baxter, from thence running south to the rear of the grant, thence east upon said rear line of said William Baxter's land, thence by the said rear line until it meets the first mentioned boundary, containing two hundred acres, more or less," which said last mentioned Deed from Alexander Case and others to Farabee Baxter and said Edward John Baxter, is dated the fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven, and recorded in the said Office of the said Registrar of Deeds, in Book W, No. 2, pages 523, &c. And also all that other lot, piece and parcel of Land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Norton aforesaid, and in the Deed thereof dated the thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven, from Farabee Baxter to said Edward John Baxter, is thus described:—"All that certain lot, piece or parcel of Land situate, lying and being on the south side of the Kennebecasis River, in the Parish of Norton, in King's County aforesaid, known and distinguished by being upper or easternmost part of the grant to Studholm, Baxter and others, bounded as follows, that is to say—On the north by the River aforesaid, on the east by lands lately the property of the late James Stark, and now in possession of his son, John Stark, on the south by the south line of the grant to Studholm, Baxter and others, and on the west by a line due south and parallel with the east line of the said grant, starting at such a place on the south bank of the Kennebecasis River as will give exactly one hundred and fifty acres by running the said course to the rear or south line of said grant; the aforesaid described piece or parcel of Land being the same as conveyed by Robert M'Vey and Prudence Ruth his wife to John Case, which said last mentioned Deed is duly recorded in the Office of the said Registrar of Deeds, in Book A, No. 3, pages 357, &c., excepting thereout a piece of land heretofore sold by the said Edward J. Baxter to Ruth Stark, containing about two and one half acres, excepting thereout also a lot of land heretofore sold by the said Edward J. Baxter to John J. Lawson, fronting fifty six feet on the Railway grounds, and extending back, continuing the same breadth, to the said Kennebecasis River, excepting thereout also a lot of land heretofore sold to one Levi N. Sharp, fronting one hundred feet on the said Railway grounds, and extending back, preserving the same breadth, to the said River, and excepting thereout also a lot of land heretofore sold by the said Edward J. Baxter to the Episcopal Church, fronting one hundred feet on the Main Road leading from Hampton to Sussex, and extending back therefrom, preserving the same breadth, one hundred feet;" together with all the buildings, fences, mills and improvements thereon, and the rights and appurtenances to the said land and premises belonging or appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatever, both at law and in equity, of the said Mortgagor, in, to, out of, or upon the said Land and Premises and every part thereof.
