

as Clerk, and he having taken the oath prescribed for him, we proceeded to take the following depositions, namely:—

G. H., who being first duly sworn in due form of law, did depose and say as follows to the first interrogatory on the part of the [setting out the answer to each interrogatory or viva voce question to the witness]. After stating the depositions of each of the witnesses, the Commissioners may conclude their return as follows:—

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this day of A. D. 18 ."

Expenses of Commission—	A. B. [L. S.]
Plaintiff, $—	C. D. [L. S.]
Defendant, $—	E. F. [L. S.]

11. The Commissioners will then annex the depositions and exhibits, or other documents to the commission, and carefully seal up the whole in an envelope, write their names across the seals, as near as may be, and address the same to "The Supreme Court of New Brunswick," stating the title of the cause, thus:—

A. B. }
v. } Commission."
C. D. }

12. If there is more than one plaintiff and one defendant in the suit, it will be sufficient to state the name of the first plaintiff and defendant, as the case may be, with the addition of the words "and another," or "others."

13. The commission and depositions being so sealed up and addressed, may be enclosed in an envelope, and sent by mail, or by a private conveyance to some person who will deliver it to a Judge, or to the Clerk of the Court.
