

SHERIFFS' SALES.

King's County.

To be sold on Tuesday the 21st day of April next, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, in front of the Court House in the Parish of Hampton, in King's County:

ALL the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, which William A. Pitt had on the thirteenth day of June, A. D. 1884, of, in, to, out of or upon the following described Lands and Premises, to-wit:—"All that certain lot, tract, piece and parcel of Land and Premises, situate, lying and being in the Parish of Kingston, County of King's, and Province of New Brunswick, and being the eastern half of that lot of land known in the Kingston Grant as number ten, fronting on the Kennebecasis River, and bounded as follows:—Commencing at the said River on the southern side of the road called the 'Old Ferry Road,' leading from the said River, thence crossing the Highway Road and running a course north forty three degrees west from a pine stump standing near the said River, and being a boundary between lots number ten and eleven in said Grant, until it strikes the rear of said lot, thence along the rear of said lot number ten southwesterly until it comes to a point made by a line north forty three degrees west from a cedar post placed on the hill by the brook as boundary between John Penegast and one Benjamin Kimble, continuing the same course to the River Kennebecasis, and thence along said River to the place of beginning, making a lot of ten chains twelve and a half links in width at right angles with said lines.

The same having been seized and taken under and by virtue of an Alias Execution issued out of the Saint John County Court at the suit of Edward T. Kennedy against the said William A. Pitt.

SAMUEL N. FREEZE, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, Hampton, King's County,
January 10th, A. D. 1885.

Queen's County.

To be sold by Public Auction, on Thursday the twelfth day of February next, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon, in front of the Office of the Registrar of Deeds, in Gagetown, Queen's County:—

ALL the right, title, interest, property, claim, and demand, either at law or in equity, of Elijah Clark, of, in, to, or out of the following described Lands and Premises, namely:—"All that lot, piece or parcel of Land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Brunswick, in Queen's County, and bounded and described as follows:—Beginning at a post standing on the southern bank or shore of the New Canaan River, in the northwestern angle of lot number two, granted to James Cromwell, thence running by the magnet south three degrees west forty two chains, thence north eighty seven degrees west twenty five chains, thence north three degrees east forty chains, thence following the various courses of the aforesaid River up stream to the place of beginning, containing one hundred acres more or less, distinguished as lot number one. Also sixty three acres off the eastern end of lot F, on the northern side of Canaan River, granted to the said Elijah Clark, the same measuring twenty five chains square, and bounded as follows:—On the east by land granted to James Cromwell, on the north by Crown land, on the west by remainder of said lot F, on the south by New Canaan River, one acre and fourteen rods being reserved from said lot F, on the north side of the road running through said lot, for a burying ground: The same having been seized under and by virtue of two several Executions issued out of the Queen's County Court at the suit of Sidney S. Stockton; and the King's County Court, at the suit of Charles I. Keith, against the said Elijah Clark.

WALTER S. BUTLER, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, Gagetown, November 3rd, 1884.

County of Restigouche.

To be sold by Public Auction, on Thursday the 22nd day of January, 1885, between the hours of 12 o'clock, noon, and 5 o'clock, P. M., in front of Mr. Jardine's Hotel, Campbelltown, in the County of Restigouche:

ALL the right, title, interest, property, possession, claim, estate and demand whatsoever, as well at law as in equity, of Daniel J. Currey and William R. Welsh of, in and to the following described Lands and Premises, viz:—"All that certain lot or parcel of Land and Premises situate, lying and being in the Parish of Addington, in the County of Restigouche, being lot number forty seven [47], on the property known as the Ritchie lands, bounded on the east by lot forty six [46], on the south by lots fifty four [54], and fifty five [55], on the west by lot forty eight [48], on the north by the highway leading to the Railway Station, being fifty [50] feet fronting on said highway, by one hundred feet [100] back or south within the said bounds, together with all buildings and improvements thereon, and appurtenances to the same belonging or appertaining: The same having been seized under and by virtue of two several Executions issued as follows:—Out of the Supreme Court, John W. MacKedie against Daniel J. Currey and William R. Welsh; Restigouche County Court, Robert H. Gray against Daniel J. Currey and William R. Welsh.

W. H. PHILLIPS, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, Dalhousie, October 20, 1884.

To be sold by Public Auction, on Saturday the 2nd day of May next, between the hours of 12 o'clock, noon, and 5 o'clock, P. M., in front of the Court House in Dalhousie, in the County of Restigouche:

ALL the right, title, interest, use, possession, property, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of John Dawson, of, into, out of or upon all that certain piece or parcel of Land lying and being in the Parish of Addington, in the County of Restigouche, Province of New Brunswick, bounded as follows:—Beginning on the southern bank or shore of Restigouche River, at a point three hundred (300) feet from the northeastern side of the Rafting Ground

Brook, so called, thence running in a southeasterly direction, and following the various courses of the said Brook, but keeping the said distance of three hundred feet (300) therefrom seven hundred and fifty (750) feet, thence southerly six hundred (600) feet, thence westerly seven hundred and fifty (750) feet, till it meets the said southern bank or shore of the Restigouche River six hundred (600) feet from the place of beginning, thence northerly following said bank of said Restigouche River to the place of beginning, a distance of six hundred (600) feet, said described lot being a part of lot number eighty (80), and granted to one William Goodwell, together with a Saw Mill and all other buildings and improvements thereon:

Also all that certain piece or lot of Land known as lot number (81) eighty one, situate, lying and being in the Parish of Addington, in said County of Restigouche, and bounded as follows:—Beginning on the westerly line of lot number eighty two (82) in block one (1), at a point distant on a course by the magnet of the year 1850 east six (6) chains along said line of said lot from a spruce stub standing on the easterly bank or shore of the Restigouche River, thence east sixty seven (67) chains, passing a spruce tree, thence north fifteen (15) chains, thence west seventy three (73) chains, passing a fir tree, or to the easterly line of the Rafting Ground lot, and thence along the same south twenty degrees east sixteen (16) chains or to place of beginning, containing one hundred acres (100) more or less:

Also all that piece or parcel of Land situate, lying and being in the said Parish of Addington, and said County, and bounded as follows:—Commencing at the boundary between lot number eighty and eighty one (80 and 81), at the Rafting Ground, so called) granted to William Goodwell and David Goodwell, and now in possession of John Dawson, thence running in a northerly direction until it strikes the dividing line between Ralph G. Dawson and lot number eighty (80), and known as lot number eighty (80), thence following the dividing line between Ralph G. Dawson and said lot number eighty (80) granted to William Goodwell, in an easterly direction two thousand (2,000) feet, thence at right angles in a southerly direction until it strikes lot number eighty one (81) granted to David Goodwell, thence following the line between lot number eighty and eighty one (80 and 81) in a westerly direction until it strikes the Rafting Ground at the place of beginning, together with all buildings and improvements thereon and appurtenances to the same belonging or appertaining: The same having been seized under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Saint John County Court at the suit of James Manchester, James F. Robertson, and Joseph Allison against the said John Dawson.

W. H. PHILLIPS, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, Dalhousie, 17th January, 1885.

County of Kent.

To be sold by Public Auction, on Saturday the thirty first day of January next, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon, in front of the Court House in Richibucto, County of Kent:

ALL the right, title, interest, use, possession, property, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of Elizabeth Johnston, Jessie Johnston, Henry Johnston, Duncan McDonald and Matilda his wife, James Johnston, James Lee and Eliza his wife, of, into, out of or upon all those Lands and Premises situate in the Parish of Dundas, in the County of Kent, on the western side of Cocagne Bay, being part of lot No. 18, granted to James Long, and now bounded as follows:—Southerly and easterly and northerly by lands formerly owned or occupied by the late Amy Hebert, and westerly by the rear line of the tract, containing one hundred acres more or less, and being the lands on which the said Elizabeth Johnston and Jessie Johnston now reside: The same having been seized and taken under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Supreme Court in Equity in a suit wherein Elizabeth Johnston, Jessie Johnston, Henry Johnston, Duncan McDonald and Matilda his wife, James Johnston, James Lee and Eliza his wife, are plaintiffs, and David E. Gallant is defendant.

A. GIROUARD, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, October 16, A. D. 1884.

County of Sunbury.

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the fifth day of March next, 1885, in front of the Station House at Fredericton Junction, in the Parish of Gladstone, Sunbury County, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon:

ALL the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, which Andrew Mathews had on the thirteenth day of October, A. D. 1883, of, in and to the following Lands and Premises situate in the Parish of Blissville, in the County of Sunbury, and bounded as follows:—On the southwest by Andrew Dunn, on the northeast by lands owned by the heirs of the late John Mathews, on the north by the road leading to the Juvenile Settlement, and on the south by lands owned by James Carr, said piece or parcel of land containing by estimation 100 acres more or less, together with the buildings and improvements thereon and appurtenances to same belonging: The same having been seized and taken under and by virtue of certain Executions issued out of the County Court of the County of York against the said Andrew Mathews.

CHARLES H. CLOWES, SHERIFF.

Sheriff's Office, Burton, 22nd November, 1884.

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 19th day of February next, (1885), in front of the Station House at Fredericton Junction, in the Parish of Gladstone, Sunbury County, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon:

ALL the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, which Spafford B. Tracey has in and to a certain lot of Land, with the improvements thereon, which is described in the Crown Land Office as "Lot number 15, South Range, Peltoma Settlement, in the Parish of Gladstone." The same having been seized and taken under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Sunbury County Court at the suit of J. Hamilton Seeley against the said Spafford B. Tracey.

CHARLES H. CLOWES, SHERIFF.

Burton, 12th November, 1884.