IN THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

Between William E. Crowsen, Plaintiff; and
Thomas A. Tingley, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, Defendants.

And by Amendment—

Between William E. Crowsen, Plaintiff; and
Thomas A. Tingley, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, and George A. Tingley, Defendants.
Before His Honor the Judge in Equity.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear by Affidavit to the undersigned, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, that the above named defendants, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, do not reside within the Province of New Brunswick, so that they cannot be served with a Summons, and that their place of residence is unknown to the plaintiff, and that the above plaintiff has good prima facie grounds for filing a Bill against the said defendants, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife: I do hereby order, that the said defendants, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, on or before the twenty ninth day of December next, do enter an appearance in this suit, (if they intend to defend the same), wherein a Bill has been filed against the above named defendants by the above named plaintiff, for declaring fraudulent and setting aside a Deed of Conveyance from the said plaintiff to said defendant, Frances A. Black, of certain Lands and Premises known as the Crowsen Island Farm, and particularly described in said Bill; and a certain other Deed of Conveyance thereof from said defendants, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, to the defendant, Thomas A. Tingley; and also a certain other Deed of Conveyance thereof from said Thomas A. Tingley to said defendant, George A. Tingley, and declaring the defendants, Thomas A. Tingley and George A. Tingley Trustees of said Lands and Premises, and the rents and profits thereof for the said plaintiff, and for an account of all moneys and property by the defendants, Thomas A. Tingley and J. Hennigar Black, received from or on account of the plaintiff since the first day of June, A. D. 1884, and of what sums, if any, are due and owing from said J. Hennigar Black and Thomas A. Tingley to said plaintiff, and for an Injunction to restrain said defendants, Thomas A. Tingley and George A. Tingley, from alienating, encumbering or disposing of said Lands and Premises; and unless such appearance is so entered, the Bill may be taken pro confesso against the said defendants, J. Hennigar Black and Frances A. Black his wife, and a Decree made.

Dated this twentieth day of September, A. D. 1888.
