

4. When any such Judgment shall have been signed as aforesaid, execution may issue thereon in the same form in all respects as though such Judgment had been signed in an ordinary action between the Liquidators mentioned in the said Order and the person therein ordered to make payment, and Judgment had been signed therein for the amount mentioned in the said Judgment in the said Order, and for which execution is therein awarded.

5. All Summonses, Affidavits, Orders and other papers, (except Judgment Rolls, Dockets and Executions), filed with the Clerk, shall be kept separate from the papers filed in ordinary suits and proceedings in the Court, and such files shall be designated and distinguished as "Winding up Act Papers."
