CENTRAL BANK OF CANADA IN LIQUIDATION.

Final Notice to Holders of Central Bank Notes or Bills still outstanding.

PURSUANT to Section 103 of the Winding-Up Act, holders of Central Bank Notes or Bills in circulation, and still outstanding, are hereby required to file their claims for the amount of such Bank Notes or Bills at the Office of the Liquidators of the Central Bank, No. 32 Church Street, in the City of Toronto, on or before the twenty fourth day of November, 1891.

And all such holders of the said Central Bank Notes or Bills are hereby required to take notice—

(1) That dividends on such part of the amount of the said Central Bank Notes or Bills in respect of which claims have not been filed with the said Liquidators will be reserved by them until the said twenty fourth day of November 1891: and

(2) That on the twenty sixth day of November 1891, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, application will be made to the Master in Ordinary at his Chambers, in Osgoode Hall, in the City of Toronto, for an Order declaring and directing that the dividends so reserved for payment of such Central Bank Notes or Bills still outstanding, or so much of the amount thereof as shall not have been applied for, do thereafter form part of the general fund and be payable as a last and final dividend to the creditors of the said Central Bank, and that all holders of such Central Bank Notes or Bills who have not filed their claims or applied for dividends within the time above limited by this final notice, shall be then forever absolutely debarred from all and every claim in respect of the said Central Bank Notes or Bills then outstanding, and that all rights or claims in respect of the same be then disallowed.
