L. J. TWEEDIE,

Provincial Secretary's Office,
Fredericton, 7th July, 1903.

NOTICE.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. That application will be made by the applicants hereinafter named to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, for a grant of Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the Province of New Brunswick, according to the provisions of The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' Act, 1893, and Acts in amendment thereof, incorporating the applicants and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed company, a body corporate and politic, under the name and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

1. The name of the Company is to be "THE CENTRAL TELEPHONE COMPANY, Limited."
2. The objects for which incorporation is sought are—To establish, maintain, operate, conduct and carry on a general telephone business in all its branches, including the building of offices, the setting up, erecting and constructing of poles and posts, stringing or putting up of wires, making of connections, buying and selling of telephone instruments, wires and all other fittings, appliances and apparatus ordinarily used and employed in carrying on a telephone business, and generally to do all and everything necessary to complete, support, use, work and maintain a system of telephonic communication, extending from the City of Saint John, via Rothesay, Perry Point, Kingston, Belleisle, White's Cove, to Fredericton, and also between such other points in the Counties of King's, Queen's, Sunbury and York as the said Company may hereafter deem necessary and expedient or in its interest to so connect by telephone, also to make connection with any other telephone Company or to lease the system of or amalgamate with any other Telephone Company: To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, own and hold such lands, licenses, privileges, buildings, plant and other real and personal property as may be required for the above purposes; To erect and maintain the necessary posts, poles, wires and other works along the public streets and highways between the above named places or in the territory above specified and for that purpose to have full power and authority for the said Company, its successors or assigns, its or their agents, servants and workmen to enter upon the side or sides of all or any of the public roads, bridges, streets or highways along which the said Company may deem it advisable to extend the said line or lines of telephone, and upon the same to set up, erect and construct such and so many posts, poles or other works as the Company in its discretion may deem necessary for making, completing, supporting, using, working and maintaining a system of communication by telephone between the said places or within the said territory: To stretch wires thereon and from time to time as often as may be necessary to break open any part whatever of the said roads, streets or highways, not however, to interfere with that part of the same appropriated for the use of carriages, sleighs, sleds, wagons or other vehicles or horses, and to keep the same open during the time necessary for the setting up, erecting, constructing, maintaining and repairing or replacing all such posts, poles or other works used in connection with the works of the said proposed Company. Provided however, that the said Company shall place such roads, streets and highways in as good condition as the same were before they opened up the same, and shall make such repairs without any unnecessary delay, and on failure of the said Company to do so, the Supervisor or Commissioner of Roads may repair the same at the expense of the said Company. And provided also, that nothing in the said Letters Patent to be granted to the said Company shall authorize the said Company to interfere with or impair the system of any existing Telephone Company; and provided also, that the Company shall not be authorized to place or maintain any post, pole or other erection opposite the window or entrance to any dwelling-house or other building.

3. The office or principal place of business is to be at Belleisle Creek, in the County of King's.

4. The amount of the capital Stock of the Company is to be Ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of Ten dollars each.

5. The names in full, address and calling of each of the applicants are as follows:—

George G. G. Scovil, Belleisle Creek, K. Co., Merchant.
Edwin G. Evans, Hampton, K. Co., Civil Engineer.
J. Michem Scovil, of the City of Saint John, Merchant.
Lauchlan P. Farris, of White's Cove, Q. Co., Farmer.
William Pugsley, of the Parish of Rothesay, K. Co., Barrister-at-Law.

James Domville, of the Parish of Rothesay, K. Co., Senator.

6. The applicants shall be the first or provisional directors of the Company.

Dated this sixth day of July, A. D. 1903.

PROBATE COURT.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

To the Sheriff of the County of Charlotte, or any Constable within the said County,—GREETING:

WHEREAS George F. Hill and John F. Grant, Executors of the last Will and Testament of Sarah McAllister, late of the Town of Saint Stephen, in the County of Charlotte, by their Petition bearing date the twenty-seventh day of June last past, have prayed that they might be admitted to pass their account with the said estate, and have the same allowed by this Honourable Court.

You are therefore hereby required to cite the said Executors, Stephen H. McAllister, the sole devisee under the said Will, and all others interested in the said estate of the said Sarah McAllister, deceased, to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at the office of the Registrar of Probates in Saint Stephen, within and for the County of Charlotte, on MONDAY the nineteenth day of OCTOBER next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to consider the application of the said George F. Hill and John F. Grant, and to shew cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be passed and allowed by this Honourable Court.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the said Probate Court, this sixth day of June, A. D. 1903.

MELVILLE N. COCKBURN,
Judge of Probate for Charlotte County.

JAS. G. STEVENS, J.A.
Registrar of Probates for Charlotte County.
