

practitioners, that they have conducted themselves with credit and reputation since their admission there, may be recommended for admission to the Bar of this Province on passing such examination as the Council may require, and payment of a fee of Two hundred dollars ($200.00); provided the Province, Colony or Territory from which the applicant comes, will in like manner admit Attorneys and Barristers from this Province; and further provided that no examination shall be required of any such applicant in case the Province, Colony or Territory from which he comes will in like manner admit Attorneys and Barristers from this Province.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO EXAMINATIONS

58. All examinations, except as hereinbefore otherwise provided, shall be by written or printed questions, to be answered in writing.

59. The answers shall be written in a legible hand, in the presence of one of the Examiners or such other person, being a Barrister, as the Examiners may for that purpose appoint.

60. The written papers shall be marked or designated by letters or numbers only; and during the examination, no applicant shall be permitted to refer to any book or person or other source of information to assist him in such answers.

61. The examination shall commence at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the day appointed, and may be continued from day to day as may be necessary.

MEETINGS.

62. The annual general meeting of the Society shall be held in the Supreme Court Room at Fredericton, on the first Wednesday in Hilary Term in each year, commencing at eight o'clock, p. m., or at such hour as the Council may fix.

63. Notice of such meeting shall be mailed by the Secretary to each member of the Society at least one week prior to the date fixed for such meeting; but failure to give such notice shall not invalidate such meeting or any business transacted thereat.

64. A General Meeting of the Society shall also be held on the first Wednesday of each Term respectively, in the Supreme Court Room, commencing at eight o'clock, p. m., notice of which shall be posted in the Law Library by the Secretary at least three days prior to such meeting.

65. Special meetings for the transaction of ordinary business may be called by the Council in Term time, on notice posted in the Library Room by the Secretary at least twenty-four hours previous to such meeting.

66. Whenever ten members file with the Secretary a notice in writing requiring a meeting of the Society to be called and stating the object of such meeting, the Council shall call such special meeting, giving as ample notice of the time, place and purpose thereof, as circumstances will permit, with the names of the members on whose application such meeting is called. Such meeting shall not in any case affect the rights and interests of individual members nor the funds of the Society.

67. Nine members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business, but no Bye-law or Rule shall be passed, altered or amended except at a general meeting, composed of at least thirteen members, a majority of whom shall concur in such new law, alteration or amendment. Nor shall any such new law or amendment be adopted unless notice thereof in writing has been given at the last general meeting held.

68. At each meeting of the Society, the minutes of the previous meeting shall be read and after being approved as read, or amended, shall be signed by the President or Chairman for the time being.

69. The order of proceedings at the general meetings of the Society, unless otherwise decided by a vote of the meeting, shall be as follows:—

- (a.) Reading the minutes of the last meeting.
- (b.) Receiving and considering reports of the Council, Treasurer and Librarian.
- (c.) Receiving and considering reports of Committees.
- (d.) Election of Officers.
- (e.) Any other business.

70. After any question is put to the meeting, no further debate thereon shall be allowed and the yeas and nays shall be recorded at the request of any two members of the Society.

71. Meetings of the Council may be called at any time by the President, or, in his absence, by the Vice-President; and shall be called by such officer upon the written request of any three members of the Council.

72. Notice of any meeting of the Council shall be sufficiently given, if the same is mailed postage pre-paid to or delivered at the usual business address of every member of the Council.

73. The proceedings of the Council and of the Society shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, according to the ordinary parliamentary mode.

REPEAL.

74. All Rules and Bye-laws of the Society heretofore in force relating to the subjects hereinbefore provided for are hereby repealed but such repeal shall be subject to the following conditions and qualifications:—

The Officers and persons acting under the said Rules or Bye-laws hereby repealed, shall continue to act until others are appointed in their stead, and all proceedings taken under the said Rules or Bye-laws shall be taken up and continued under these Rules and Regulations, when not inconsistent herewith, and all penalties and forfeitures may be recovered and all proceedings had in relation to the matters which have happened before the said repeal, in the same manner as if the said Rules and Bye-laws hereby repealed, were still in force.
