

ed by any foreign country, and are in force there, Her Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that country shall, without being re-measured in Her Majesty's dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.

(2) Her Majesty in Council may limit the time during which the Order is to remain in operation, and make the Order subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as Her Majesty may deem expedient, and the operation of the Order shall be limited and modified accordingly.

(3) If it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under this Act, Her Majesty in Council may order that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under this Section, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of this Act, be re-measured in accordance with the said Act.

And whereas by Section 30 of the Interpretation Act, 1889, it is enacted that in that Act and in every other Act whether passed before or after the commencement of that Act references to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the passing of the Act or to the Crown shall unless the contrary intention appears be construed as references to the Sovereign for the time being and that Act shall be binding on the Crown:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His present Majesty that the tonnage of French ships as measured by the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships of France materially differs from that which would be the tonnage of such ships if measured under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894":

Now, THEREFORE, His Majesty in Council doth order that notwithstanding the hereinbefore recited Order in Council dated the 5th day of May, 1873, any of the ships of France may for all or any of the purposes of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" be re-measured in accordance with the said Act.
