

THE BEIT PROFESSORSHIP OF COLONIAL HISTORY.

BY command of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the following notice, in regard to the election of a Professor to the Chair of Colonial History, endowed by Mr. Alfred Beit, at the University of Oxford, is published for the information of institutions of Education throughout the Province.

EDUCATION OFFICE,
May 8th, 1905.

J. R. INCH,
Chief Supt. of Education.

BEIT PROFESSORSHIP OF COLONIAL HISTORY, OXFORD.

The Electors to this Professorship will proceed to an election in October, 1905.

Intending Candidates are requested to send in their applications, with such evidence of their qualifications as they may desire to submit, so as to reach the Registrar of the University not later than October 1, 1905. The choice of the Electors is not necessarily limited to those who send in applications.

The Professor will be elected in the first instance for a period of seven years, and will be entitled during that period to the annual income of £900, arising out of the annual income of Mr. Beit's foundation. If after the expiration of six years the Hebdomadal Council shall, after consultation with the Electoral Board, decide that the continuance of the Professorship will be of advantage to the University, the endowment will be made permanent, and the Professor will be entitled to the like annual income of £900 payable from this permanent endowment.

It will be the duty of the Professor to lecture and give instruction on the history of the British Dominions and possessions over the Seas, exclusive of India and its Dependencies, but including the history of the American Colonies before their separation from the mother-country.

He will be subject in respect of residence and duties to the General Regulations laid down in Stat. Tit. IV. Sect. I. § 3, (Oxford University Statutes, p. 55, ed. 1904), and also to the Particular Regulations applicable to the Professors enumerated in Schedule A, (ibid., p. 60). He must, in addition to his ordinary lectures, deliver at least once annually, after previous public notice, a public lecture open to all members of the University without payment of any fee.

T. H. GROSE,
Registrar.

NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the third day of May, A. D. 1905, incorporating Donald Fraser, of the City of Fredericton, in the County of York and Province of New Brunswick, Mill Owner; Holland S. Giberson, of the Parish of Gordon, in the County of Victoria, in said Province, Merchant; J. Fletcher Tweeddale, of said Parish of Gordon, Farmer; Harry W. Beveridge, of the Parish of Andover, in said County of Victoria, Merchant; James Burgess, of the Town of Grand Falls, in said County of Victoria, Mill Owner; and Alexander Straton, of the said Parish of Andover, Barrister; for the following purposes, namely:—

To erect and maintain telephone lines throughout the County of Victoria, in the Province of New Brunswick, and for the purpose of transmitting by telephone messages from any point within the said County to any point or points therein, for hire over the wires of the said Company.

To acquire and hold land on which to erect buildings and other erections for the use of the Company, and to erect buildings and erections thereon, and to lease, sell, convey, dispose of, mortgage and otherwise encumber the same as the Company may think necessary, and for any of the said purposes to sign, seal and deliver all conveyances and other instruments in writing necessary in the premises.

To do all such other things as are incidental to or necessary in erecting and carrying on the business of a telephone Company.

In the exercise of any of the rights and privileges conferred upon the said Company by this Charter, the said Company shall not obstruct the public in its right to travel over or use any public street, road, square, open plot of ground, highway bridge, water course, lake, river or stream, and shall not in extending its lines and system at any time enter upon, break or open any public street, road, square, open plot of ground, highway or bridge, or any part thereof, in said County without the assent thereto of the Superintendent of Highways in the district where the said works may be erected first having been obtained, and then only for such reward to be paid therefor by the Company to said Superintendent of Highways, and upon such terms and conditions as to the location, height, dimensions and description of such poles and posts, and as to the proper repairing of such streets, roads, squares, open plots of ground, highways and bridges, as the Municipal Council of the said County shall or may make, prescribe, ordain or require.

Provided also, that no pole or post shall be erected or maintained opposite the door or window of any dwelling, store or other building, or opposite the entrance to any premises.

Provided also, that the Company shall not erect or maintain its wires in such position as to interfere with the system of any existing telephone, telegraph or electric lighting system; by the name of "THE PROVINCIAL TELEPHONE COMPANY, Limited," with a total Capital Stock of Nine thousand dollars, divided into three hundred and sixty shares of Twenty-five dollars each.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the third day of May, A. D. 1905.

L. J. TWEEDIE, Provincial Secretary.

NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the third day of May, A. D. 1905, incorporating Simon Ernest Vaughan, of the Parish of Saint Martins, in the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick, General Trader and Storekeeper; Robert Allan Love, of the same place, Clerk; Robert Carson, of the same place, Shipowner; Henry Palmerston Vaughan, of the City of New York, in the United States of America, Physician and Surgeon; and Albert Scott White, of the Town of Sussex, in said Province of New Brunswick, Barrister; for the following purposes, namely:—

To acquire in whole or in part the good-will, stock-in-trade, merchandise, choses in action and property of the business of general trader and storekeeper heretofore carried on at Saint Martins, in the City and County of Saint John, by Simon Ernest Vaughan, one of your petitioners; and to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire in whole or in part the lot of land with store and buildings thereon where said business has lately been carried on, with power to sell, mortgage, incumber, let or otherwise dispose of any of the property aforesaid as and when the Company may deem it desirable so to do.

To carry on the business of storekeeping and general trading, and of merchants and dealers in merchandise, and of farming, lumbering, manufacturing, ship-building and shipping, or any or all of the same.

And for the purposes aforesaid, to deal in, use, buy, or otherwise acquire, and to sell and let, mortgage or otherwise incumber or dispose of lands, real estate, chattels real, and interests in land, personal property of all kinds, including without limitation by reason of the following particularity, animals and their products, manufactured articles of all kinds, products of the forest, farm, mine and sea, franchises, licenses, privileges, trade-marks, patents and patent rights, chattels and choses in action.

To manufacture any of the articles capable of manufacture which the Company is authorized to buy, sell, use or deal in, and (or) to build, equip, acquire, operate and manage such buildings, mills, factories, machinery and tramways as the Company may deem necessary for the purposes of its business.

To build, equip, manage and (or) operate sail and (or) steam vessels for the transportation of passengers or merchandise, and to buy or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of, sail or steam vessels, or any shares, part thereof or interest therein.

To buy, lease, manufacture, sell, let, mortgage, pledge or otherwise charge or dispose of, and generally, without limitation by reason of the foregoing particulars, to acquire, hold, manage, alienate and incumber as and when the Company may deem it desirable so to do any and all kinds of property, as well real as personal, which the Company in the course of their business may deem it to their advantage to so deal with.

To do all and everything necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear expedient for the protection or benefit of said Company, and as fully as natural persons might or could do; by the name of "THE SAINT MARTINS TRADING COMPANY, Limited," with a total Capital Stock of Ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares of One hundred dollars each.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary, at Fredericton, the third day of May, A. D. 1905.

L. J. TWEEDIE, Provincial Secretary.
