

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That William Lilley, Jr., Meat Merchant, of the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Carleton, did, on Thursday the 19th day of December, A. D. 1907, pursuant to the provisions of the Chapter 141 of the Consolidated Statutes of the Province of New Brunswick, 1903, entitled "An Act Respecting Assignments and Preferences by Insolvent Persons," make and execute a general assignment of all his property and estate for the benefit of his creditors to the undersigned, William A. Hayward, High Sheriff of the County of Carleton; and also, that a meeting of the creditors of the said William Lilley, Jr. will be held at the office of the said Sheriff in the Town of Woodstock, in the said County of Carleton, at the hour of three of the clock in the afternoon of

for the purpose of the appointment of Inspectors and giving directions in reference to the disposal of his estate, and the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before the meeting.

And further take notice, that all creditors of said William Lilley, Jr. are required to file their claims, duly proven, with the undersigned Assignee within three months from the time hereof, unless further time be allowed by a Judge of the Supreme or County Court; and that all claims not filed within the time limited, or such further time, if any, as may be allowed by any such Judge, shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of said estate; and that said Assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of said estate as if any claim not filed aforesaid did not exist, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtors hereof.

Dated at the Town of Woodstock, this 23rd day of December, A. D. 1907.

WM. A. HAYWARD,
Assignee.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF SUNBURY COUNTY.

[L.S.] To the Sheriff of the County of Sunbury, or any Constable within the said County.—GREETING:

WHEREAS, Emma J. Taylor, of the City of Saint John, in the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick Widow, one of the devisees mentioned in the last Will and Testament of the late George Thomas Taylor, late of the Parish of Sheffield, in the County of Sunbury, deceased, has by her petition dated the eighteenth day of November, A. D. 1907, and presented to this Court, and now filed with the Registrar of this Court, prayed that such last Will and Testament may be proved in solemn form; you are therefore required to cite the following heirs, next of kin, devisees and legatees of the said George Thomas Taylor, deceased, namely: Ellen Eliza Wasson, Stephen B. Taylor, Emma J. Taylor, George Herbert Taylor, James W. McCready, Isaac Stephenson, and The Trustees of the Centenary Methodist Church of the City of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, and all others whom it may concern, to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held in and for the County of Sunbury, in the Registry Office at Oromocto in the said County, on Tuesday the tenth day of March next, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to attend and take such part with regard to the proving of such last Will and Testament in solemn form as they may see fit, with full power to oppose such last Will and Testament if so proved, or otherwise, as they and every of them may deem right; the petitioner disputing the validity of the said last Will and Testament.

Given under my hand and Seal at the said Probate Court, this twenty-ninth day of November, A. D. 1907.

(Sgd) JOHN W. GILMOR,

Judge of Probate for the County of Sunbury,

(Sgd) J. STEWART CAMPBELL,

Deputy Registrar of Probates for the County of Sunbury. 14ins

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under the First Part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the Seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 23rd day of October, 1907, incorporating Fred S. Morse, lumber merchant, of the City of Springfield, in the State of Massachusetts, one of the United States of America; Harry B. Curran, lumber merchant, of the Town of Bathurst, in the Province of New Brunswick; Alexander W. MacRae, barrister-in-law, Frederick E. Sayre, timber merchant, and Arthur I. Trueman, Judge of Probate, the last three of the City of St. John, in the said Province of New Brunswick, for the following purposes, viz:—

(a) To carry on throughout Canada and elsewhere the business of lumberers, lumber and timber merchants and manufacturers of timber and lumber in all its branches, and all other business incidental thereto or usually connected therewith;

(b) To manufacture, buy, sell, deal and trade in all kinds of sawed, square and hewn timber and lumber, saw-logs, pulp-wood, ties, piling, shingles, laths, telegraph and telephone poles, fence posts, fuel, wood and all other articles and materials in which timber, lumber or wood is used;

(c) To acquire by lease, purchase, gift, exchange or otherwise, hold, sell, mortgage, build, construct, erect, own, equip, improve, operate control, and maintain saw-mills, planing mills, wood-working factories, fuel and lumber yards, warehouses, elevators, stores, houses, offices, and buildings of all kinds, manufactories, plant, boilers, engines, machinery, fittings, apparatus and appliances, sidings, tracks, spurs, and shipping facilities, wharves, docks, boats, booms, flumes, aqueducts, viaducts, steamboats, ships, vessels, scows, barges, and such other property and boats of every nature and kind, works, buildings, machinery, tools, plants and conveniences as may seem necessary to advance the interests of the company, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the acquisition, construction, equipment, improvement, working, management, operation or control thereof;

(d) To acquire by lease, purchase, gift, exchange or otherwise hold, develop, sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of freehold or leasehold timber lands and other lands, timber of all kinds apart from lands, licenses to cut timber, mill sites, water powers and privileges, riparian rights and all and any other real and personal property, rights, franchises, easements and privileges which it may be thought expedient, desirable or convenient for all and any of the purposes of the company;

(e) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, build, equip, control, maintain and operate such transportation facilities whether by land or water, as may be necessary or convenient to conduct the operations of the company and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same; to contract for, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, own, equip, operate, maintain and control tramways and logging railways and work the same by horses, electric, mechanical or other power, and to carry on business as carriers of goods, wares and merchandise, and to charge such fair remuneration therefor as may be agreed on;

(f) To acquire, own, develop and operate water powers and steam, electric and other plants for the purposes of generating, producing and accumulating electricity and electro-motive power or other similar agency for the production of light, heat and power for the purposes of the company, with power to sell or otherwise dispose of any surplus not required by the company and to supply the same for light, heat and power purposes to any persons, company or corporation on such terms as may be agreed upon; provided that the foregoing powers when exercised outside the property of the company shall be subject to all provincial and municipal laws and regulations in that behalf; to construct and operate telegraph, telephone and tramway lines on property owned or leased by the company; but only for the purposes of the company's business;

(g) To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, property, real or personal, and the good-will, franchises, rights, privileges, contracts and assets of any and every kind useful in connection with the business of the company upon such terms as may be deemed advisable from any individual, firm or corporation, whether as a going concern or not, and to pay for the same in cash, part cash, in shares, fully or partially paid up and non assessable, bonds, or other security of the company or otherwise, as may be agreed upon, or to sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the whole or any portion of the same;

(h) To carry on business as contractors and merchants, commission and general agents;

(i) To use the company's fund in the purchase of stock of any other corporation, or to pay for any such stock so acquired by the issue of shares, fully or partially paid up and non assessable, and to sell, hold and re-issue and otherwise deal with the shares so acquired, subject always to section 44 of Companies' Act;

(j) To enter into any arrangement for a union of interests, or a division of profits with any person, corporation or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this company is authorized to engage in or carry on, the whole subject to the provisions of the Companies' Act;

(k) To take, acquire and hold any security of any nature and kind, real or personal, for debts and liabilities or obligations to the company incurred or to be incurred in respect to the purposes and objects of the company and to discharge or dispose of the same;

(l) To empower the directors of the company under a by-law previously adopted at a meeting of the shareholders, from time to time to issue and allot as a fully paid up and non-assessable, stock, shares of the capital stock of the company to the directors of the company and others, as consideration for work done, guarantees given or agreed to be given, or services rendered or agreed to be rendered in furtherance of the objects of the company, including services rendered or to be rendered to the company by the promoters and directors of the company and others in the work of organization and carrying on of the company's affairs;

(m) To distribute any of the property of the company subject to the approval of the shareholders;

(n) To sell or dispose of the property, mills, assets, undertakings and business of the company, in whole or in part for such consideration as the company may deem fit, and in particular for stock, bonds, debentures or other securities in any other company having objects similar to those of this company, and to divide among the shareholders by way of dividend, any cash, stock, bonds or securities so received;

(o) To make advances to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons; to invest any surplus moneys of the company in the redemption of its own shares, bonds or debentures in such manner as may from time to time be determined;

(p) To accept in payment of any debt due to or of any work done by the company, stock, shares, bonds, debentures or other security of any company;

(q) To hold meetings of the shareholders of the company elsewhere in Canada than at the head office of the company when previously authorized by a by law passed at a meeting of the shareholders;

(r) To do all such other things as are conducive to the attainment of the above objects.
