IN THE MATTER OF THE "NEW BRUNSWICK JOINT STOCK COMPANIES' ACT."

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That an application will be made under the said Act to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, for a grant by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Province of New Brunswick of a Charter constituting the applicants and others who may become shareholders in the company proposed to be created a body corporate and politic, for the purposes and objects hereinafter mentioned.

The proposed corporate name of the Company is "DOMINION AND AMERICAN COAL COMPANY, Limited."

The objects for which its incorporation is sought, are as follows:—

1. To purchase, acquire and take over certain mining leases and licenses to search granted by the Crown under and by virtue of the Mines and Minerals Act, 1892, passed by the Legislature of the Province of Nova Scotia and covering certain mines and minerals and lands and premises situate in the County of Cumberland and Province of Nova Scotia.

2. To purchase, acquire, take over, hold, use, occupy and possess, mines, minerals, oil and oil lands, mining licenses and leases and mining and other rights, interests, options, grants, easements, authorities and privileges, lands, tenements and hereditaments and any interest or interests therein and to carry on the business of mining and the acquisition, development, working, purchase and sale of mining lands and premises and mining leases, licenses, rights and privileges in the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada; and generally to carry on the business of mining in the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada.

3. To mine, quarry, work, mill and prepare for sale by any process, and to sell and deal in coal, shales or oil shales, oilite, coke, ironstone, copper and copper ores, iron and iron ores, manganese and other minerals, ores and metals, clays or mineral substances; and generally to carry on the trades of mine and coal owners, iron masters, founders, smelters of metals, quarrymen and metal dealers.

4. To construct, purchase, alter and maintain and to contribute to the purchase, construction, alteration or maintenance of any building, tramway, wire-rope tramway, canal, wharf, bridge, pier, road or other work, calculated to afford any facility in carrying on or extending the business of the company, and to operate such tramway, wire-rope tramway and other works by steam, electricity or other motive powers.

5. To purchase, hire, construct or manufacture for use in connection with the business of the company, any ships, barges, rolling stock, machinery or plant.

6. To acquire, purchase, use, hold, sell, transfer and dispose of any rights under letters patent, franchises, trade marks and other rights and rights in lands, tenements and hereditaments in connection with the business of the proposed company.

7. To acquire the good-will of any business within the objects of the company, and any lands, tenements and hereditaments, privileges, contracts, rights and powers appertaining to the same, and in connection with any such purchase or acquisition, to assume the liabilities of any company, association, partnership or person.

8. To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the property or undertaking of the proposed company to any other company or person.

9. To acquire by original subscription or otherwise, and to purchase, hold, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of the shares, stock, debentures, bonds and other obligations of any other company carrying on or authorized to carry on any business or undertaking within the powers of the proposed company.

10. To construct, purchase and maintain any plant, buildings, works, factories, mills and other undertakings for the purposes of the company or connected therewith or necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the company or incidental thereto.

11. To purchase, acquire, hold, use, sell, transfer and dispose of personal property of all kinds, machinery, patents and trade marks, timber and lumber rights, ores, metals, minerals and mining rights and easements of every description, and all rights of way and of common carriage in connection with the business of the company; and to lease, mortgage, sell, transfer and dispose of and otherwise deal with all or any of the property, real or personal, powers, privileges, and franchises of the company, and to accept as a consideration therefor any shares, stock, debentures or securities of any other company; and generally to do all things necessary or expedient for carrying out the objects of the said company hereinbefore mentioned, or of any of them, or incidental thereto, subject however, to the laws of the Province of New Brunswick.

12. To apply from time to time, any part of the funds, stock, whether common or preferred, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the company, for any purpose of the company.

The applicants will, in their application for letters of incorporation, ask that there be embodied in the letters patent for the incorporation of the proposed company provisions authorizing and empowering the board of directors of the said proposed company to make and from time to time to repeal or alter a By-law or By-laws, creating or issuing any part of the capital stock giving the same such preference or priority as respects dividends and otherwise over ordinary stock as may be declared by the said By-law or By-laws. Also authorizing the board of directors of the said proposed company to borrow money upon the credit of the company and to issue bonds or debentures and to sell, pledge or hypothecate the same for any sums borrowed, or deposit the same as collateral security for any promissory note or over draft of the company at such prices and for such amounts as may be deemed expedient or necessary, but no such debentures or bonds shall be for a less sum than one hundred dollars. Also to hypothecate or pledge the real or personal property of the company to secure any sums borrowed by the company and to secure any bonds or debentures of the company by the said real or personal property or both; provided always, that the amount to be borrowed or for which such bonds or debentures may be pledged or hypothecated, shall not at any time be greater than seventy-five per cent. of the actual paid up stock of the company; provided always, that the limitations and restrictions on the borrowing powers of the company contained in such provisions shall not apply to or include money borrowed by the company on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, accepted or endorsed by the company or by over draft or otherwise than on the bonds or debentures of the company.

The place in which the office or chief place of business of the company is to be established is Buctouche, in the County of Kent, in the Province of New Brunswick.

The amount of the capital stock of the said proposed company is Forty-eight thousand dollars, to be divided into four hundred and eighty shares of the par value of Ten dollars each.

The name in full, address and calling of each of the applicants, the first three and last named of whom are to be the first or provisional directors of the said proposed company, is as follows:—
