NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

PUBLIC Notice is hereby given, that under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the Thirty-first day of December, A. D., 1908, incorporating Frederick W. Winter, Merchant; Alexander R. Torrie, Manager; John Winter, Merchant; Maud E. Winter, Married Woman; and Frederick C. Torrie, Painter; all of the City of Moncton, in the County of Westmorland, and Province of New Brunswick, for the following purposes, namely:—

To buy, construct or lease and to open up, operate and manage amusement halls in the City of Moncton and elsewhere in the Province of New Brunswick and throughout the Dominion of Canada, to which the public will be admitted, either free of charge, or upon payment of an admission fee, and in which will be shown, exhibited and operated either free of charge or upon the deposit or payment of a nominal sum of money various mirth provoking novelties and devices and divers machines presenting scenic and other still and animated views and discoursing music and songs.

To present and give in such halls or elsewhere, concerts, theatrical performances, and all other kinds of legitimate shows, and for such purposes to hire and engage performers, singers, actors and actresses and all other persons and help required therefor.

To hold by lease purchase or otherwise all movable and immovable property required for the operations of the Company, to sell the same in whole or in part, to replace it or exchange it, to hypothecate its immovable property or any part thereof as the occasion may arise.

To buy, import, make or manufacture the machinery, machines, devices and novelties which may be used by the said Company in its business, and any other objects or articles pertaining thereto or incidentally connected therewith, to sell, to lease, to exchange or otherwise dispose of such machinery, machines, devices, novelties, objects and articles.

To hold theatrical representations, vaudeville shows, and all kinds of entertainment and exhibitions.

To acquire, hold, sell, convey, mortgage, pledge or lease such real estate, lands and buildings as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company.

To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

To sell and dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company.

To act as agents for other persons, companies and firms doing a similar business.

To buy the assets of any person or company carrying a business similar to that which this Company is authorized to carry on or to amalgamate with said person or company, and to lease their rights.

To pay for any of the above mentioned property and for services rendered in connection therewith by the issue of fully paid up and non-assessable stock of the Company.

To provide amusement, entertainment and instruction for the shareholders of the Company, the general public and others and for such purposes enter into such manner of agreements with authors, theatrical or vaudeville agents or other persons for the production in the Company's property or elsewhere of athletic performances, feats of skill, operas, plays, operettas, burlesques, vaudevilles, ballads, pantomimes, spectacular pieces, musical composition or other dramatic and musical entertainments, and to enter into engagements of all kinds with artists and other persons in connection with said business.

To purchase and hold shares of stock in any other company or companies, or bonds secured upon property or undertakings belonging to any other company or companies carrying on a business similar to that of the Company, and from time to time, to sell such shares or bonds or exchange them for other shares or bonds.

To manufacture electric current, electric power or heat for the purposes of the Company, and for such purposes to erect, instal and equip such machinery or apparatus necessary for the manufacture, distribution and mensuration of the same, to sell any surplus heat, light or power, not required for the purposes of the Company on such conditions as it may deem advisable, provided that when exercised outside the property, the foregoing power shall be subject to all Provincial and Municipal laws and regulations in that behalf.

To carry on and conduct the business above defined in all its various branches and departments, and to do anything and everything which may be found necessary or suitable to promote the objects for which the Company has been formed, by the name of "The Eastern Amusement Company, Limited," with a total Capital Stock of Twenty-four thousand dollars divided into Two hundred and forty shares of One hundred dollars each.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the Thirty-first day of December, A. D., 1908.

J. K. FLEMING,

Provincial Secretary.
