

"seven;" and by striking out the word "six" in the last line of said section, and substituting in lieu thereof the word "seven."

12. Section 67 of said Chapter 22, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "liquor" and "shall" in the tenth line thereof the following words: "or allows or permits any minor to loiter or remain in his licensed premises."

13. Section 111 of said Chapter 22, as amended by the Act 5 Edward VII., Chapter 26, is hereby repealed and the following substituted in lieu thereof:—

"111. After the service of the said notice, if any person with a knowledge of such notice, gives, sells, purchases for or on behalf of the person with regard to whom the said notice has been given, or for his or her use, any liquor, such other person shall, upon conviction, incur for every such offence a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars, and not exceeding fifty-dollars. It shall not be lawful for any person so interdicted to frequent or be present in any licensed tavern, or saloon, on any pretence whatever, during the pending of such notice, or prohibition, and if any such person so interdicted, shall be found present in such licensed premises within the period of such interdiction, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten dollars, nor more than thirty days in jail, at the discretion of the presiding justice or justices of the court before whom such inquiry is held, unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the justice or justices, that he was present in such licensed premises doing or performing some act or service in connection with the business, calling or service, carried on by him, as a means of livelihood, but such privileges shall not permit such interdicted person acting as clerk or servant of such licensee."

14. Section 65 of said Chapter 22 as amended by the Act 7 Edward VII., Chapter 47, is hereby further amended by making the said section to be sub-section (1) and adding thereto the following sub-sections (2) and (3):—

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person licensed under this Chapter to sell intoxicating liquor to any Indian, and any person who so sells intoxicating liquor to any Indian shall be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars and not exceeding fifty dollars.

(3) If any person procures or obtains for, or gives intoxicating liquor to any Indian he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars, and not exceeding fifty dollars.

15. Section 124, of said Chapter 22, as amended by the Act 5 Edward VII., Chapter 26, is hereby repealed and the following substituted in lieu thereof:—

"124. Should the Board of License Commissioners have what they consider sufficient reason to believe that any person holding a beer license is selling or keeping for sale intoxicating liquors without having a license therefor, or that he keeps a disorderly house, or that he has in any way violated the provisions of this Chapter, either by selling upon Sunday, or keeping open after the hour of five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, or before the hour of seven o'clock on the Monday morning thereafter, or after the hour of ten o'clock in the evening on other nights of the week, or otherwise, they may, in their discretion by resolution revoke and cancel such license, after giving to the holder of such license five days' notice of their intention to do so and after hearing such explanation or defence as he may be able to offer against the cancellation of such license."

16. Section 125 of said Chapter 22, as amended by the Act 5 Edward VII., Chapter 26, is hereby repealed and the following substituted in lieu thereof:—

"125. No person holding a beer license shall sell on Sunday any of the drinks or beverages for sale of which a license is required under this Chapter, nor shall the premises licensed be kept open after the hour of five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, nor be opened before seven o'clock on the Monday morning thereafter, nor shall said licensed premises be open after the hour of ten o'clock in the evening, or be opened before seven o'clock in the morning on all other days of the week; provided, that this section shall not apply to the sale of temperance drinks to guests in hotels; and provided also, that nothing herein shall prevent druggists from keeping their premises open during such prohibited hours for the carrying on of their ordinary business, or from dealing in spirituous liquors as fully as they might have done, had this chapter not been passed, but they shall not during such prohibited hours, sell any of the beverages mentioned in sections 119 and 120."

17. Nothing contained in sections 15 and 16 of this Act shall prevent druggists, confectioners, grocers and fruit dealers, and keepers of restaurants with accommodation for not less than ten guests, where meals are regularly served, from selling soda water, and other temperance drinks during such prohibited hours, except on Sundays.

18. The fees to be paid for holding elections hereunder shall be the same as are now paid for holding civic or municipal elections, as the case may be, and shall be paid out of the consolidated revenue of the Province, upon the order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, when itemized accounts for the services performed, duly verified, are rendered.

19. The forms provided to be used in connection with "The Liquor License Act" may be changed to conform to the changes in hours or otherwise made by this Act, as circumstances may require.
