BY AUTHORITY.

By His Honour Lemuel John Tweedle, K. C.,
LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

L. J. Tweedle.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Legislative Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Thursday, the Twenty-seventh day of October instant, I have thought fit further to prorogue the said Legislative Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued accordingly to Thursday, the Eighth day of December next.

Given under my hand and Seal, at Fredericton, the Twenty-sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the first year of His Majesty's Reign.

By Command of the Lieutenant-Governor.

JAMES K. FLEMMING,
Provincial Secretary.

HIS Honour the Lieutenant-Governor directs the publication of the following, for general information:

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE.

All proposals of candidates for the Nobel Peace Prize, which is to be distributed December, 10th, 1911, must, in order to be taken into consideration, be laid before the Nobel Committee of the Norwegian Parliament by a duly qualified person before the first of February of the same year.

Any one of the following persons is held to be duly qualified: (a) Members and late members of the Nobel Committee of the Norwegian Parliament, as well as the advisers appointed at the Norwegian Nobel Institute; (b) Members of Parliament and Members of Government of the different States, as well as Members of the Interparliamentary Union; (c) Members of the international Arbitration Court at the Hague; (d) Members of the Commission of the Permanent International Peace Bureau; (e) Members and Associates of the Institute of International Law; (f) University professors of Political Science and of Law, of History and of Philosophy; and (g) Persons who have received the Nobel Peace Prize.

The Nobel Peace Prize may also be accorded to institutions or associations.

According to the Code of Statutes, § 8, the grounds upon which any proposal is made must be stated, and handed in along with such papers and other documents as may therein be referred to.

According to § 3, every written work, to qualify for a prize, must have appeared in print.

For particulars, qualified persons are requested to apply to the office of the Nobel Committee of the Norwegian Parliament, Drammensvei 19, Kristiania.

$100 REWARD.

Government Notice.

THE Government of New Brunswick offers a reward of $100 for evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who set fire to the barn of J. H. Ryder in the Parish of St. Leonards, Madawaska County, and to the School House in the same District, on the morning of August 13th, last past.
