

NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under Chapter Eighty-Five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the Twenty-Third day of March, A. D. 1910, incorporating Arthur R. Slipp, of the City of Fredericton, in the County of York and Province of New Brunswick, Barrister-at-Law; Richard B. Hanson, of the same place, Barrister-at-Law; Howard P. Robinson, of the City of Saint John, in the City and County of Saint John, and Province aforesaid, Broker; Joseph Walker, of the City of Fredericton aforesaid, Merchant, and Harry W. Walker, of the same place, Merchant; for the following purposes, namely:

To conduct and carry on a general contracting, constructing, engineering and mechanical business, within the Province of New Brunswick or within the Dominion of Canada, and for that purpose to acquire, take over, and carry on and continue the business of any contractor or contractors or Company having for its objects either in whole or in part general contracting work.

To survey, lay out, construct and equip lines of railway to be operated by steam, electricity or other power both within the Province of New Brunswick and the Dominion of Canada; and to purchase, sell, deal in and acquire railway and engineering supplies and appliances including engines, tenders, cars and other rolling stock.

To construct water supply systems, water works, sewerage systems, reservoirs, highway bridges, railway bridges, road beds, buildings, stations, railway yards, work shops, wharves, terminal facilities and other appurtenances requisite or incidental to the construction and working of railways or for any other purpose whatever, and generally to lay down, construct and equip any kind of public or private work of every nature, kind and description whatsoever, including the construction and equipment of telephone or telegraph lines from any point or points to any other point or points within the Province of New Brunswick or within the Dominion of Canada, and to supply all necessary machinery and apparatus for the construction, equipment and maintenance of the same.

To purchase, acquire, sell, trade and deal in railway shares, stocks, bonds and securities, and to enter into contracts for the construction and equipment of lines of railway and lines of telegraph, and to take payment therefor in full or in part of the stocks, bonds and securities of said lines of railway and lines of telegraph, and also in money and land grants and subsidies and other bonuses or franchises granted to the said railway or telegraph lines so far as the same may by law be used or applied for defraying the costs of construction or erection of the same.

To conduct and carry on a general wholesale and retail merchandise business in goods, wares and merchandise of every kind and description, and to buy, acquire and take over any business of a similar kind which may have heretofore been carried on by any person or persons.

To carry on any other business either for the manufacturing, building or constructing merchandise or otherwise which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any business of the Company, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property, rights or undertakings.

To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or Company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessing property suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to purchase and acquire stock in any incorporated Company, and to sell, mortgage, hypothecate and otherwise dispose of and convey the same, with power also to sell and dispose of all the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof.

To purchase, have, hold, acquire, lease, sell, convey and dispose of and mortgage or otherwise encumber real or personal estate of the said Company, and any interest therein.

To do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company either as owners of or as interested in any property or otherwise, by the name of "Fredericton Construction Company, Limited," with a total Capital Stock of Fifty thousand dollars, divided into Five hundred shares of One hundred dollars each, and with the head office of the said Company at the City of Fredericton.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the Twenty-Third day of March, A. D. 1910.

JAMES K. FLEMING,
Provincial Secretary.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that W. Henry Anderson, of the Parish of Richmond, in the County of Carleton, lumberman, did on Monday, the 21st day of March, A. D. 1910, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 141 of the Consolidated Statutes of the Province of New Brunswick, 1903, entitled "An Act respecting Assignments and Preferences by Insolvent Persons," make and execute a general assignment of all his property and estate for the benefit of his creditors to the undersigned John R. Tompkins, High Sheriff of the County of Carleton, and also that a meeting of the creditors of the said W. Henry Anderson will be held at the office of the said Sheriff in the Town of Woodstock, in the said County, at the hour of 2.30 of the clock in the afternoon of Saturday, the second day of April, prox., for the purpose of the appointment of Inspectors and giving directions in reference to the disposal of his estate, and the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before the meeting.

And further take notice, that all creditors of said W. Henry Anderson are required to file their claims, duly proven, with the undersigned Assignee, within three months of the date hereof, unless further time be allowed by a Judge of the Supreme or County Court; and that all claims not filed within the time limited, or such further time, if any, as may be allowed by any such Judge shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of said estate, and that said Assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of said estate as if any claim not filed as aforesaid did not exist, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtors therefor.

Dated at the Town of Woodstock this twenty-sixth day of March, A. D. 1910.
