

BARRISTERS' SOCIETY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

RULES 25, 29, 37, 40, 44, 48, 53, 55, 62, 64 and 65 of the Barristers' Society have been repealed, and the following substituted:

25. At the meeting of the Council, to be held on the second Tuesday in June in each year, an examiner shall be appointed in place of the one whose term of office is about expiring; and the term of every examiner shall be three years. Any examiner may be reappointed.

29. (1) Before any person is presented to the Barristers' Society for the purpose of being examined in order to his being entered as a student in the office of any barrister, he shall, at least four weeks previous to the time appointed for such examination, give notice in writing to the secretary, and also cause a copy of such notice to be put up on the bill-board in the law library; and shall, at least four weeks prior to the time for such examination, present a petition to the Council, setting forth his age, place of birth, residence, place of education, and the name of the barrister with whom he proposes to study, which petition shall be subscribed by the applicant and certified by the barrister, that after a careful inquiry and personal examination as to the character, habits and education of the applicant, he verily believes such applicant to be a proper person and properly qualified to be admitted as a student-at-law. Upon his being approved by the council, he shall be permitted to undergo such examination as may be prescribed under rule twenty-eight (28). Such examination to be held at Fredericton, or at such place as the council may appoint.

(2) Subject to the exception in favor of graduates, as hereinafter provided, the term of study for all students-at-law shall be four years.

(3) The term of study for all students-at-law, who shall, previous to being entered as such students, have taken the degree of Bachelor of Arts at any legally authorized University or College, and for all students-at-law who shall, at any time previous to their application for admission as attorneys, have taken the degree of Bachelor of Laws or Bachelor of Civil Law from such lawfully authorized University or College as may from time to time be approved of by the council, shall be three years.

37. The preliminary examination of applicants as students-at-law shall be held at Fredericton on the third Tuesday in August in each year; and all other examinations shall be held at Fredericton on the third Tuesday in October in each year; or at such times and places as the council may at any time otherwise order.

40. Any person who has taken the degree of bachelor of laws, or bachelor of civil law, from such lawfully authorized college or university as may from time to time be approved of by the council shall not be required to pass the intermediate examinations.

44. The examinations prescribed by the board of examiners shall be on the subjects following:—

- (c) Equity.—Smith or Snell.
- (d) Partnerships, and Corporations.—Underhill on Partnership, and Palmer's Company Law.
- (e) Criminal Law.—Blackstone, Vol. IV., and The Criminal Code.
- (f) Admiralty and Shipping.—Stockton's Admiralty; and Smith's Mercantile Law; Book II., Caps. 1 and 2; Book III., Caps 3, 4, 7 and 9; and Book IV., Cap. 2.
- (g) Procedure.—Practice in Supreme, County, Probate and Inferior Courts.
- (h) Statutes.—Maxwell on Interpretation; Dominion and Provincial Interpretation Acts; The Judicature Act, 1909, and Rules; The County Court Act; The Probate Act; Inferior Courts Acts; Witnesses and Evidence Act; Arrest, Imprisonment and Examination of Debtor Act; Memorials and Executions; The Registry Act; Bills of Sale Act; Wills Act; Intestate Estates Act; Married Women's Property Act; The Property Act; Landlord and Tenant; Partnerships; Corporations; Trustee Act.

The Council of the Society is authorized and empowered, as they may deem necessary and advisable to alter and amend the foregoing syllabus, or the syllabus under Rule 30, as to the subjects, text-books and statutes therein prescribed; provided that before any such alteration or amendment shall take effect as to any examination, notice thereof shall be given in the Royal Gazette at least three months prior to such examination.

48. Any student-at-law who has completed his required term of study, and has passed all the intermediate examinations which he shall be required to pass under the rules of the society, may make application for examination and admission by petition addressed to the council of the society and filed with the secretary at least two weeks before the time of his examination, setting forth his age, the date of his admission as a student-at-law, the barrister with whom he studied, and the law school or college he has attended (if any), with the degree or degrees held by him, which petition shall be accompanied by a certificate verifying his age, and a certificate of the barrister with whom he studied of the moral character and service of the applicant; and the certificate of moral character shall be full positive and explicit, and shall contain particular testimonial to the sober and temperate habits of the applicant. He shall also give notice in writing of his intention to so apply for admission by notice filed with the secretary, and posted up in the law library at least four weeks prior to the time of such examination. He shall undergo an examination by the board of examiners appointed by the council and under their direction on the prescribed subjects, which examination shall be both oral and written. The oral examination, on the practice of the courts, shall be held first, and the candidate shall be required to pass the same to the satisfaction of the examiners before being admitted to take the final written examination.

53. Every attorney applying to be called to the bar shall give to the secretary notice in writing of his intention so to do, at least four weeks before the opening of the session of the court at which he intends to apply, and post the same on the bill-board in the law library, and if, during the period since his admission as an attorney, his practice and conduct have been professional and honorable, and no objections are made to his moral character and habits, he shall be recommended accordingly; but if objections be made, an inquiry shall be instituted by the council, who shall either grant or withhold a certificate as to them may appear just and right in the premises, subject to appeal to the society at any general meeting. No attorney shall be called to the bar, and admitted a barrister until after the lapse of one year from the date of his admission as an attorney.

The application for admission to the bar shall be made by petition to the council, stating the date of the petitioner's admission as an attorney, to be filed with the secretary on or before the Monday preceding the session of the court at which he intends to apply.

55. Every attorney who may desire to be re-admitted shall apply by petition to the court, stating therein the place or places in which he may have resided, and the business, profession or employment in which he may have been engaged or concerned since his admission, which petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner, and shall be presented to the court on or before the Thursday in the first week of the session of the court immediately preceding that at which he may desire to be re-admitted.

62. The annual meeting of the society shall be held in the supreme court room at Fredericton, on the second Tuesday in February in each year, commencing at half past eight o'clock, p. m., or at such hour as the council may fix.

64. A general meeting of the society shall also be held on the second Tuesday in September in each year, in the supreme court room, commencing at half past eight o'clock, p. m., notice of which meeting shall be posted in the law library by the secretary at least three days prior to such meeting.

65. Special meetings for the transaction of ordinary business may be called by the council during any session of the court en banc, on notice posted in the law library by the secretary at least twenty-four hours previous to such meeting, 1 ins.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT AND MEETING OF CREDITORS

NOTICE is hereby given that on the fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 141 of The Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, intitled "Respecting Assignments and Preferences by Insolvent Persons" and amending Acts, R. Watson Whitlock, of the Town of Saint Stephen, in the County of Charlotte and Province of New Brunswick, insurance agent, did make a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors of all his personal property which may be seized and sold under execution and of all his real estate, credits and effects, to the undersigned, George J. Clarke, of the Town of Saint Stephen aforesaid, in the County and Province aforesaid, Attorney-at-Law; and also that a meeting of the creditors of the said R. Watson Whitlock will be held at the office of the undersigned George J. Clarke, in the said Town of Saint Stephen, on Tuesday, the twenty-eighth day of June, A. D. 1910, at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon, for the appointment of Inspectors and for the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of said estate and for the transaction of all such other business as may legally come before said meeting.

And notice is further hereby given that all the creditors of the said R. Watson Whitlock are required to file their claims, duly proven, with the undersigned Assignee within three months from the date of this notice, unless further time be allowed by a Judge of the Supreme Court or County Court, and that all claims not filed within the time limited or such further time, if any, as may be allowed by any such Judge, shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of the said estate, and that the said Assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the said estate as if no such claims existed, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtor therefor.

Dated at the Town of Saint Stephen, in the County of Charlotte, this sixteenth day of June, A. D. 1910.

GEORGE J. CLARKE,
Assignee.
