BY AUTHORITY.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

On the 7th instant His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor received the following despatch containing the sad intelligence of the death of His Most Gracious Majesty, King Edward the Seventh:—

I am commanded to inform you that His Excellency the Governor General has received with deepest distress the sad intelligence that His Majesty, King Edward VII., passed away at 11.45 yesterday evening, May 6th. Name assumed by new Sovereign and instructions for taking the oath of allegiance shall be telegraphed you as soon as I receive the necessary information.

CHAS. MURPHY,
Secretary of State.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor on learning the sad intelligence of the death of His Late Majesty, King Edward VII., sent the following message of sympathy through His Excellency the Governor General:—

St. John, N. B., May 6th, 1910.

On behalf of my Government, myself, and the people of the Province, I beg to tender most heartfelt sympathy to the Queen and Royal Family in their bereavement, and to assure them that in no part of the British Empire will the death of His Majesty be more sincerely deplored.

L. J. TWEEDIE,
Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

On the 8th instant His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor received the following despatch:—

I am commanded to inform you that His Majesty has assumed the title "George the Fifth of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India." Proclamation to issue in special Gazette tomorrow under provisions of Chapter one hundred and one of the Revised Statutes of Canada continuing all officials in office; you will at once take the oath of allegiance to King George the Fifth before the Chief Justice, or in his absence, the senior judge of the Supreme Court of your Province and then administer it to the members of your Executive Council.

CHAS. MURPHY,
Secretary of State.

On the 8th instant His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor also received the following despatch:—

I am commanded to inform you that a cablegram has been received by His Excellency the Governor-General, from the Colonial Secretary, as follows: "Orders have been issued by war office to all general officers commanding, excepting India, as follows: Monday, May 9: At noon hoist flag to masthead; fire a royal salute for His Majesty's succession. On the following day flag to be hoisted half mast, to be kept this way until funeral, date of which you will be notified. Act in concert with royal navy. Officers are to wear crepe on left arm of uniform and on same arm of great coats. Drums should be covered by black and crepe should be hung from top of colors staff, infantry regiment's standard staff, and trumpets of cavalry regiments until after funeral."

CHAS. MURPHY,
Secretary of State.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has this day received the following reply to his message of condolence:—

I thank you for your message which I have forwarded to the Secretary of State for the Colonies for submission to the King.

By Authority.

By His Honor LEMUEL JOHN TWEEDIE, K. C., LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

L. J. TWEEDIE

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy our late Sovereign Lord, King Edward the Seventh, of Blessed and Glorious Memory, by whose decease the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and all other His Late Majesty's Dominions, is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Prince George, Prince of Wales:—

I, the said Lemuel John Tweedie, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick, assisted by my Executive Council, and with their hearty and zealous concurrence, do therefore hereby Publish and Proclaim that the High and Mighty Prince George, Prince of Wales, is now, by the Death of our late Sovereign of Happy and Glorious memory, become our only lawful and rightful Liege Lord, GEORGE THE FIFTH, By the Grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to whom are due all Faith and constant Obedience with all Hearty and Humble Affection;

And I do hereby Require and Command all Persons whomsoever to yield Obedience and Govern Themselves accordingly, Beseeching God, by whom Kings do Reign, to Bless the Royal Prince George the Fifth with long and happy years to reign over us.

Given at Fredericton this ninth day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

By Command,

J. K. FLEMMING,
Provincial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.
