

quirements of the law, and also with the regulations and requirements of the License Commissioners, and is one of the persons designated or otherwise approved of by the License Commissioners, the said License Commissioners may grant such applicant a certificate, under the hands of any two of them, stating that he is entitled to a license (stating whether wholesale or retail) for a certain time, and for certain premises within the municipality, to be mentioned in such certificate.

(2) The license duty shall then be paid by the applicant into such Bank as may be designated by the Provincial Secretary, to the credit of the Receiver General of the Province, to a special account to be called "License Fund Account for the District of——," for the license district; and upon production by the applicant to the Inspector of the certificate of the License Commissioner, together with a receipt shewing payment in full of the duty to the credit of the license fund account, the Inspector may issue the license authorized by the License Commissioners.

13. The License Commissioners shall not grant any certificate for a license, or any certificate whatsoever, whereby any person can obtain or procure any license for the sale of spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors on the days of the Exhibition of the Saint John Exhibition Association, or of any agricultural society exhibition, either on the grounds of such society or within the distance of three hundred yards of such grounds.

14. No license shall hereafter be granted to or for any ferry boat.

15. A license shall not be granted to or for the benefit of any person who is a License Commissioner or Inspector, and every license so issued shall be void.

16. No licensed tavern keeper shall be qualified to be appointed to or to hold a place in the Commission of the Peace, or to be elected to or serve in the Council in any Town, City or other Municipality, or hold any office in the appointment of any Town, City or Municipal Council, or to be elected to, appointed or serve as a Trustee of Schools; and any person holding any or either of such offices, places or appointments shall, on making application for a tavern license under this Act, be held by virtue thereof to have vacated and forfeited such offices, places or appointments, and the same shall, ipso facto, upon such application as aforesaid, become absolutely forfeited, vacated and annulled.

17.—(1) A license shall not be issued for premises within any license district of which any of the License Commissioners or of the Inspectors for such district is the owner, and every License Commissioner who knowingly issues a certificate for a license for any such premises, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty of $500.

(2) The preceding sub-section shall not extend or apply to premises owned or occupied by a joint stock company in which a License Commissioner is a shareholder, but in every such case, and in every case where a License Commissioner is the mortgagee of any premises, or agent for the collection of rents in respect of any such premises, such License Commissioner shall not, under a penalty of $500, vote upon any question affecting the granting of a license to the company or for premises owned or occupied by it, or for premises in respect of which he is such mortgagee or agent.

18. Subject to the provisions of this Act as to removals and the transfer of licenses, every license for the sale of liquor shall be held to be a license only to the person therein named and for the premises therein described, and shall remain valid only so long as such person continues to be the occupant of the said premises and the true owner of the business there carried on.
