

traveller or other person be himself the holder of a wholesale license issued by the License Commissioners of the district in which he so sells or canvasses; and if any person shall sell or canvass for the sale of such liquors in violation of this section, he shall for each such offence be liable to the penalties provided by Section 62 of this Act, and, in addition thereto, no action shall be maintained against the vendee for the price of any liquor so sold, and any obligation or security given therefor shall be void.

46.—(1) Chemists and druggists, duly registered as such under and by virtue of the New Brunswick Pharmacy Act, 1884, may keep and have liquors for sale for strictly medicinal purposes, but no such sale shall be made in packages of more than six ounces at any one time, except under certificate from a registered medical practitioner. It shall be the duty of every such chemist or druggist to record in a book kept for the purpose the date of such sale or disposal, whether it be a sale of six ounces, or under or over that quantity, the person to whom sold, the price, and the purpose for which it was sold, and also the name of the medical practitioner giving the certificate, if any; provided always that no person authorized to sell liquors as provided by this section shall allow any liquor sold by him or on his premises to be consumed on such premises.

(2) The said book is to be kept open to the inspection of the License Commissioners or Inspectors, and in default of such sale or disposal being so recorded in the said book, every such sale or disposal shall be held to be a contravention of the provisions contained in Sections 43 and 44 of this Act.

(3) Any medical practitioner who colorably gives a certificate or requisition for medicinal purposes, without which liquor could not lawfully be obtained from a chemist or druggist in quantities of more than six ounces, to enable or for the purpose of enabling any person to obtain liquor to drink as a beverage, shall, for the first offence, be liable to a penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $20, and for a second or any subsequent offence, for not less than $20 or more than $40.

(4) Nothing in this section shall restrict the sale of methylated alcohol, or oil of whiskey, or other medicines for cattle or horses.

(5) A chemist or druggist, who is also a duly qualified medical practitioner, may himself give the certificate provided for in this section.

(6) The provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 48 of this Act shall apply to chemists and druggists.

CLUBS.

47.—(1) Any society, association or club which has been or shall be formed or incorporated under any Act of Assembly, and any unincorporated society, association or club, and any member, officer or servant thereof, or person resorting thereto, who shall sell or barter liquor to any member thereof, or to any other person, without the license therefor by this Act required, shall be held to have violated Section 43 of this Act, and shall incur the penalties provided for the sale of liquor without license.

(2) The keeping or having in any house or building, or in any room or place occupied or controlled by such club, association or society, or any member or members thereof, or by any person resorting thereto, of any liquor, shall be deemed a sale within section 43 of this Act upon each day on which such liquor is so kept.

(3) Proof of consumption or intended consumption of liquor in such premises by any member of such club, association or society, or person who resorts thereto, shall be conclusive evidence of sale of such liquor, and the occupants of the premises, or any member
