

sit or vote in any Municipal Council for two years thereafter, and if any such person, after the forfeiture aforesaid, sits or votes in any Municipal Council, he shall incur a penalty of $40 for every day he so sits or votes.

62. Any person who sells or barterers spirituous, fermented or manufactured liquors of any kind, or intoxicating liquors of any kind, without the license therefor, by law required, shall, for the first offence, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $50, besides costs, and not more than $100, besides costs; and in default of payment thereof he shall be imprisoned in the County Gaol of the County in which the offence was committed, for a period of not less than three months, and to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate; and for the second offence, on conviction thereof, such person shall be imprisoned in such Gaol for the period of four months, to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate; and for the third or subsequent offence, on conviction thereof, such person shall be imprisoned in such gaol for the period of six months, to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate; and in the event of the imprisonment of any person upon several warrants of commitment under different convictions, in pursuance of this Act, whether issued in default of a distress for a penalty, or otherwise, the terms of imprisonment under such warrant shall be consecutive and not concurrent.

63.—(1) Offences against sub-section 1 of section 48 of this Act shall be punishable on summary conviction as follows:—

(a) For the first offence, by imposition of a penalty of not less than $50 and not more than $100, besides cost.

(b) For the second offence, by the imposition of a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $200, besides costs, or forty days' imprisonment with hard labor.

(c) For the third offence, by the imposition of a penalty of not less than $200 and not more than $400, besides costs, or eighty days' imprisonment with hard labor; and such conviction for a third offence shall, in addition to any other punishment by law provided, ipso facto, operate as a forfeiture of the license held by the person so convicted, and disqualify him from obtaining a license for two years thereafter.

(d) Provided that if such offence is proved to have been committed on a Sunday, between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and twelve o'clock at night, on conviction of the holder of a license for such offence, his license shall, ipso facto, be forfeited. Provided, further, that if on the hearing of any information for such alleged offence, it appears that such offence was a first offence and was not committed by the licensee, or by or with his knowledge, connivance or consent, his license shall not be liable to forfeiture thereunder.

(2) Every person convicted of an offence against sub-section 1 of section 52 of this Act shall be liable to a penalty for each offence of not more than $10 and not less than $2, besides costs.

64. Every tavern keeper, whose duty it is to do so, failing or refusing, either personally or through any one acting on his behalf, except for some valid reason, to supply lodging, meals or accommodation to travellers, shall for each offence be liable on conviction to forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding $20.

65. If any person licensed under this Act permits drunkenness, or any violent, quarrelsome, riotous or disorderly conduct to take place on his premises, or sells or delivers intoxicating liquors to any drunken person, or permits or suffers any drunken person to consume any intoxicating liquor on his premises, or permits and suffers persons of notoriously bad character to assemble or meet on his premises, or
