

for not more than sixty days, with or without costs, as in his or their discretion may seem just; and in case the keeper of any such inn, tavern, ale-house, beer-house, or place of public entertainment, is convicted under this section, and his license annulled, he shall not be eligible to obtain a license for the period of two years thereafter, and shall also be liable to the penalties by section 75 prescribed.

71. Any person who, having violated any of the provisions of this Act, compromises, compounds, or settles, or offers or attempts to compromise, compound or settle the offence with any person or persons, with the view of preventing any complaint being made in respect thereof, or if a complaint has been made with a view of getting rid of such complaint, or of stopping or having the same dismissed for want of prosecution, or otherwise, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned at hard labor in the Common Gaol of the County in which the offence was committed, for the period of three months.

72. Every person who is concerned in or is a party to the compromise, composition or settlement mentioned in the next preceding section, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and on conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the Common Gaol of the County in which the offence was committed for the period of three calendar months.

73. Any person who, on any prosecution under this Act, tampers with a witness, either before or after he is summoned or appears as such witness on any trial or proceeding under this Act, or by the offer of money, or by threats, or in any other way, either directly or indirectly, induces, or attempts to induce any such person to absent himself, or to swear falsely, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each offence.

74.—(1) In all cases of convictions under this Act, where the Justice or Justices are authorized to adjudge that a penalty in money, or a penalty in money and costs, be paid by the defendant, and that in default of payment thereof, the defendant be imprisoned for any period, with or without hard labor, the Justice or Justices may by the conviction adjudge that the defendant be imprisoned, unless the sum or sums be paid, and also the costs and charges of the commitment and conveying of the defendant to gaol, are sooner paid.

(2) The amount of the costs and charges of commitment and conveying of the defendant to gaol are to be ascertained and stated in the warrant of commitment.

75. Any person who violates any other provision of this Act, in respect of which violation no other punishment is prescribed, shall, for the first offence, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $20, besides costs, and not more than $50, besides costs, and in default of payment thereof, he shall be imprisoned in the County Gaol of the County in which the offence was committed, for a period not exceeding one month, and to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate; and for the second offence, on conviction thereof, such person shall forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $40, besides costs, and not more than $60, besides costs, and in default of payment thereof he shall be imprisoned in the County Gaol of the County in which the offence was committed, for a period not exceeding two months, and to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate; and for the third, or subsequent offence, on conviction thereof, such person shall be imprisoned in such gaol for the period of three months, to be kept at hard labor, in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate.

76. In the event of the imprisonment of any person upon several warrants of commitment under different sections, in pursuance of this Act, whether issued in default of a distress for a penalty, or otherwise, the terms of imprisonment under such warrants shall be consecutive and not concurrent.
