IN THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

Between Angus Fisher, Plaintiff; and John Fisher, Edgar Rourke, and Martha Ann Rourke, Defendants.

And by Amendment—

Angus Fisher, Plaintiff; and John Fisher, Edgar Rourke, William Thompson and Martha Ann Thompson his wife, David Rourke, Frank Ross Hill, George Ballon and Ida Ballon his wife, Charles Rose and Margaret Rose his wife, Henry Prime and Mattie Prime his wife, and Frank A. Hill, Defendants.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of me, the undersigned, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court that William Thompson and Martha Ann Thompson his wife, two of the above named defendants, do not reside within the Province, so that they cannot be served with a summons, and that their place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff, and that the above plaintiff has good prima facie grounds for filing a Bill against the above named defendants, I do hereby order that the said William Thompson and Martha Ann Thompson his wife, two of the above named defendants, on or before the twenty-second day of July next, do enter an appearance in this suit, (if they intend to defend the same), wherein a Bill will be filed against the above named defendants by the above named plaintiff, for the partition of that certain piece, parcel or tract of land, situate, lying and being at Oven Head, so called, in the Parish of Saint Patrick, County of Charlotte, and more particularly described as follows: Bounded on the North by the Highway road leading from Saint Andrews to Saint John, on the East by lands formerly owned and occupied by the late James Stewart and now occupied in part by Colon Stewart, on the South by the waters of Passamaquoddy Bay, and on the West by a lot of land commonly known as the School lot, containing about two hundred acres, more or less, with all and singular the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining, which said lands and premises were formerly granted by the Crown to one George Fisher, now deceased, and being lot number nine in a Grant under the Great Seal of the Province of New Brunswick, of certain lands in the said Parish of Saint Patrick, made on the seventeenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, unto John Roix, Junior, James Stewart, Junior, and others, and of which said lot or tract of land above described the said George Fisher, late of the Parish of Saint Patrick aforesaid, was seized and possessed absolutely in fee simple, at the time of his death, and the same is now owned by the said Angus Fisher, the above named plaintiff, and the above named defendants, John Fisher, Edgar Rourke, Martha Ann Thompson wife of the defendant William Thompson, Frank Ross Hill, Ida Ballon wife of the defendant George Ballon, Margaret Rose wife of the defendant Charles Rose, and Mattie Prime wife of the defendant Henry Prime, as the children and the legal representatives of the deceased children of the said late George Fisher, deceased, and held by them as tenants in common. The said Martha Ann Thompson, wife of the said William Thompson, being a child of the late Mary Ann Rourke, who was a daughter of the said late George Fisher, who died intestate, she the said Martha Ann Thompson is beneficially entitled unto a portion of the share of the late Mary Ann Rourke in the said lands and premises. And unless such an appearance is so entered, the Bill may be taken pro confesso and a Decree made.

Dated this seventh day of May, A. D. 1897.

FRED. E. BARKER,
Judge Supreme Court.

M. N. COCKBURN, Plaintiff's Solicitor.
