CAP. XII.

An Act to further amend Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Statutes, of 'Justices' Civil Courts.'

Repeal of Sec. 13, Cap. 60, Cons. Stat. and new Section substituted ; Arrest and bail.

Passed 18th March, 1898.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor and Legislative Assembly as follows :

Section 13 of Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Statutes, intituled 'Justices' Civil Courts,' is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

" 13. After the defendant is arrested, the constable shall take bail for his appearance, who shall subscribe a memorandum endorsed on the capias, that they have become so. But if no bail be offered, he shall carry the defendant before the Justice who issued the capias, or before some other Justice of the County resident near the place where the defendant has been arrested, and the defendant, when brought there shall either deposit (D) with the constable, the sum sworn to and costs, or give bail in the manner aforesaid, or be committed to gaol by warrant (E) of the Justice. The deposit shall be applied to the payment of the plaintiff's judgment, and if there be an overplus, it shall be returned to the defendant on demand. The plaintiff may at any time waive bail, and proceed as on summons.
