IN THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

Oliver Jones, Plaintiff; vs.

Harriet Alice Hicks, and George Hicks, her husband, May Burch, Roxanna Burch, George Burch, Mary Burch and W. McKenzie Weldon, Defendants.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of me, the undersigned, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, that Harriet Alice Hicks and George Hicks her husband, and George Burch, three of the above named defendants do not reside within the Province so that they cannot be served with a summons, and that their places of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff, and that the above plaintiff has good prima facie grounds for filing a bill against the above named defendants; I do hereby order that the said defendants, Harriet Alice Hicks and George Hicks her husband, and George Burch, on or before the tenth day of JANUARY next, 1899, do enter an appearance in this suit, if they intend to defend the same, wherein a bill will be filed against the above named plaintiff, for the foreclosure and sale of certain mortgaged lands and premises situate and being at Sunny Brae in the Parish of Moncton, in the County of Westmorland, and conveyed by way of mortgage by Edmund Burch to the said Oliver Jones by Indenture of mortgage bearing date the fifteenth day of March A. D. 1888, and also conveyed by said Edmund Burch to the said Oliver Jones by a certain other Indenture of mortgage bearing date the twentieth day of September A. D. 1890; the said Edmund Burch departed this life intestate after the making and recording of said several mortgages, leaving him surviving his wife, the defendant Mary Burch, and the defendants Harriet Alice Hicks, May Burch, Roxanna Burch, and George Burch, sons and daughters, the defendant Harriet Alice Hicks having married and being now the wife of the defendant George Hicks.

And unless such an appearance is so entered the bill may be taken pro confesso and a decree made.

Dated this 29th day of October A. D. 1898.

P. A. LANDRY, J. S. C.
