IN THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

Between John M. Galbraith, Plaintiff; and Margaret Corn, Michael Morris and Annie Morris his wife, Robert McKee and Margaret McKee his wife, David Galbraith, Thomas B. Galbraith and Margaret Galbraith his wife, Mary C. Galbraith and Mary McCavour, Defendants.

WHEREAS, it has been made to appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of me, the undersigned, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, that the above Defendants, Margaret Corn and Mary McCavour, do not reside within the Province, so that they cannot be served with a summons, and that their place of residence cannot be ascertained by the Plaintiff, and that the above Plaintiff has good prima facie grounds for filing a bill against the above named Defendants: I do hereby order, that the said Defendants, Margaret Corn and Mary McCavour, on or before the fifth day of August next, do enter an appearance in this suit (if they intend to defend the same), wherein a bill will be filed against the above named Defendants by the above named Plaintiff for the partition of a certain lot of land and premises described as follows, that is to say: "All that certain piece or parcel of land situate near Pisarino Cove, in the Parish of Lancaster, County of Saint John, and Province of New Brunswick, beginning at a square blazed spruce tree near the bank of the Bay of Fundy at the southwesterly angle of Lot G in a plan of division of lots Nos. 23, 24, and 25, in the Egbert Grant, made by Deputy Thomas O'Kelihier, September 7th, 1833, thence by magnet of the year 1859 north four degrees east thirty-five chains (of four poles each) and fifty links to a marked cedar tree, thence north eighty-six degrees west four chains and sixty-one links to a stake, thence south four degrees west thirty-five chains and fifty links to a square blazed yellow birch tree near the bank of the Bay of Fundy, and thence following the bank of the Bay to the place of beginning, containing fifteen acres," and unless such an appearance is so entered, the bill may be taken pro confesso, and a decree made.

The above named Defendants, Margaret Corn and Mary McCavour, are made parties to this suit by reason of their being heirs of John McCavour, deceased, who died intestate, seized and possessed of the above described lands and premises.

Dated this eighteenth day of May, A. D. 1899.
