

other two of whom shall be councillors for such parish or portion of a parish, not included within the limits of any City or Town as aforesaid. In case there are three or more councillors for the parish, or such portion of a parish, as aforesaid, the County Council shall elect two of them to be the revisors for the parish, or such portion of the parish, as aforesaid."

2. Section 27 of the said "The New Brunswick Elections Act of 1889," is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"27. In each City and in each incorporated Town there shall be three revisors, two of whom shall be annually appointed by the Common Council, City Council, or Town Council, as the case may be, and one of whom shall be annually appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council."

3. Each of the three revisors appointed for any parish or portion of a parish as aforesaid, or City or Town, shall receive the same amount for his services as such revisor, and in addition thereto a sufficient sum to defray his necessary expenses incurred, to be paid by the County, or in the case of a City, by the City, and to be levied and assessed and paid, as nearly as may be, in like manner as heretofore.

4. The preamble of the Act of Assembly, 60 Victoria, Chapter 38, is hereby amended by striking out therefrom the words "through mere oversight or error in copying;" and Sections 1 and 2 of the said Act of Assembly, 60 Victoria, Chapter 38, are hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"1. If at any time after the voters' list has been deposited with the County secretary, as provided in Section 36 of the said "The New Brunswick Elections Act of 1889," application is made by or on behalf of any person interested, to the sheriff, verified by oath or affidavit, showing to his satisfaction that any name or names have been omitted from such voters' list, or have been wrongly placed or included therein, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, on notice to the revisors, or any two of them, of the City, Town, parish, or portion of a parish not included within the limits of any City or Town as aforesaid, for or in respect to which such voters' list has been prepared, to appoint a time and place for hearing the application to have such name or names added to or omitted from such voters' list, as the case may be, and if upon such hearing the sheriff shall be satisfied that any name, in respect to which such application was made, was omitted from such list, and was entitled to have been placed therein by the revisors, he shall thereupon add such name to said list, and if upon such hearing the sheriff is satisfied that any name upon such voters' list in respect to which such application was made, was not entitled to be placed on such list, by reason of the person whose name it is, not having been duly qualified at the time such list was prepared by the revisors, to have his name so entered on said list, or if he be satisfied that the person whose name it is, is dead, he shall strike such name out of said voters' list, and the list with the names so added or struck off, shall be as good and valid in all respects as if the name or names had been included or omitted, as the case may be, in the list prepared and filed by the revisors; provided always, that the sheriff shall not strike off the name of any person upon said list, unless it be made to appear to him, either that such person is dead, or that notice of the application to strike off such name has been served upon the person whose name it is, either personally, or by mailing a copy addressed to him at his last known place of address, a reasonable time before the hearing of such application. Upon any hearing before the sheriff under this Section, he may examine witnesses under oath, which oath he is hereby authorized to administer, and he may also on such hearing receive affidavits in support of or opposed to any application hereunder. No application shall be received by the sheriff or hearing be held before the sheriff under this Section, within ten days next preceding the day fixed for any Provincial or Dominion election in the County in which the said list is to be used as a list of voters entitled to vote at such election for the parish or district therein named."

"2. The provisions of the last foregoing Section shall apply to all voters' lists prepared and filed with the County secretary before the passing of this Act, as well as to those which may be so prepared and filed hereafter."

5. Where any real estate is assessed in the name of two or more persons, none of such persons shall in respect of such assessment, or of his interest in said land, be qualified to vote at an election for the members of the House of Assembly, or to have his name placed on the voters' list required to be deposited with the County secretary, as provided in Section 36 of "The New Brunswick Elections Act of 1889," unless the value of the share or interest which such person has in his own right, in such real estate, shall be one hundred dollars or upwards.

6. Section 81 of the said "The New Brunswick Elections Act of 1889," is hereby amended, by inserting after the words "Provincial Secretary;" in the second line from the bottom, the following words: "Together with a written statement showing the number of votes polled for each candidate at such election in each of the several polling booths in said County, with the total state of the poll (which return shall be by the said Provincial Secretary laid before the Legislature at the Session thereof next following thereafter.)"

7. Section 101 of "The New Brunswick Elections Act, of 1889," is hereby amended in that part thereof which relates to the Parishes of Woodstock, Brighton, Kent, and Aberdeen in the County of Carleton, and divides the said parishes into sub-districts under the said Section, by striking out the words:

"In the Parish of Woodstock, Number One.—For that part of the parish north of a line beginning on the western bank of the river Saint John, at the southern side line of lot J, granted to Richard L. Woods; thence running westerly
