PROCLAMATION.

EXTRACT from Chapter XXV., Statutes of Canada, 1869: "An Act respecting certain Offences relative to Her Majesty's Army and Navy."

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Whosoever not being an enlisted soldier in Her Majesty's service, or a seaman in Her Majesty's Naval service, by word or with money, or by any other means whatever, directly or indirectly persuades or procures, or goes about or endeavours to persuade, prevail on or procure any such soldier or seaman to desert, or leave Her Majesty's Military or Naval service, or conceals, receives or assists any deserter from Her Majesty's Military or Naval service, knowing him to be such deserter, may be convicted thereof in a summary manner before any two Justices of the Peace, or before the Mayor of any city and any one Justice of the Peace, or before any Recorder, Judge of the Sessions of the Peace or Police Magistrate, on the evidence of one or more credible witness or witnesses, and shall then be liable to a penalty not less than eighty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of the Court before which the conviction takes place, with costs, and in default of payment may be committed to gaol for any period not exceeding six months, or until such penalty is paid.

Whosoever buys, exchanges or detains, or otherwise receives from any soldier or deserter, any arms, clothing or furniture belonging to Her Majesty, or any such article belonging to any soldier or deserter as are generally deemed regimental necessaries, according to the custom of the Army, or causes the colour of such clothing or articles to be changed, or exchanges, buys or receives from any soldier any provisions, without leave in writing from the Officer commanding the regiment or detachment to which such soldier belongs, may be convicted thereof in the manner mentioned in the next preceding section, and shall then be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than forty dollars and costs, and in default of payment be committed to gaol for a period not exceeding nine months, or until such penalty is paid.

One half the amount of any penalty imposed under any of the preceding sections shall be paid over to the prosecutor or person by whose means the offender has been convicted, and the other moiety shall belong to the Crown.

Any person reasonably suspected of being a deserter from Her Majesty's Service, may be apprehended and brought for examination before any Justice of the Peace, and if it appears that he is a deserter, he shall be confined in gaol until claimed by the military or naval authorities, or proceeded against according to law.

No person shall break open any building to search for a deserter unless he has obtained a warrant for that purpose from a Justice of the Peace, such warrant to be founded on affidavit that there is reason to believe that the deserter is concealed in such building, and that admittance has been demanded and refused; and any person resisting the execution of any such warrant shall thereby incur a penalty of eighty dollars, recoverable on summary conviction in like manner as any other penalties under this Act.

Any Justice of the Peace, upon information on oath or affirmation, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of any person charged with an offence against this Act, as in the case of other offences against the law.

REWARDS.

A reward, without any deduction whatever, of £2 sterling will be paid to any person who shall apprehend and place in safe custody any deserter from Her Majesty's Army, provided he acted of his own knowledge, and not on information laid by another person.

To the person giving such information as shall lead to the arrest of a deserter from Her Majesty's Army, a reward of £1 sterling will be paid, and to the person who effects the arrest of such deserter the reward shall be £1, without any deductions whatever in either case.

The name of any person giving information about deserters will not be divulged.

Immediately a deserter is captured information should be sent to the D. A. A. General, Headquarters, Halifax.

By Order,

V. BISCOE,
Colonel, Chief Staff Officer.

Halifax, N. S., 27th October, 1899.
