CAP. XXVII.

An Act in addition to and in amendment of Chapter 50 of the Consolidated Statutes, intituled "The Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes."

Sec. 1. In case Judge dies, resigns or is removed, newly appointed Judge to take up proceedings and carry them to a conclusion.
Sec. 2. In case Judge interested, other Judge named may act.

Passed 3rd April, 1901.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor and Legislative Assembly, as follows:—

1. In all cases in which the office of Judge of the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes has become, or may hereafter become vacant, by reason of the death, resignation or removal from office of the Judge of said Court, and another appointment thereto has been made, such newly appointed Judge may take up all suits and causes, which at the time of such vacancy occurring, were pending before the Court, and as they then were, and without requiring evidence or other proceedings to be re-taken, proceed with the same to completion, including final decision, determination and execution, in the same manner, in all respects and with the same rights and also the same rights to the parties as if the same had been commenced before him.

2. In the event of such newly appointed Judge of said Court being interested in any such suit or matter by reason of having been counsel therein, or otherwise, any other Judge of the Supreme Court, named by the Judge so interested to act as Judge of said Court for the completion of such suit or matter, may proceed therewith in all respects and with the same rights and also the same rights to the parties as if he had been the duly appointed Judge of the said Court.
