

RULES AND REGULATIONS of the Barristers' Society of New Brunswick, made under the authority of the Act 2nd. Edward VII., Chapter 21, intituled "An Act further relating to Admission of Attorneys."

The Rules and Regulations of the Barristers' Society of New Brunswick, made and passed on the Fourth day of June, A. D. 1902, under the authority of the Act of Assembly 2nd. Edward VII., Chapter 21, intituled "An Act further relating to Admission of Attorneys," having been submitted to the Supreme Court for approval and sanction, which Rules and Regulations are as follows:—

(1). There shall be three examinations for persons applying for admission as Attorneys at-Law, in addition to the preliminary examination for admission as a Student-at-Law. Such examinations to be passed:

(1st Exam.—1st Intermediate). At any regular examination held following the year in which the candidate passed his preliminary examination and was entered as a Student-at-Law.

(2nd. Exam.—2nd. Intermediate). At any regular examination held following the year in which the candidate passed his first intermediate examination.

(3rd. Exam.—Final). In the case of "three-year" students, at any regular examination held in the third or any subsequent year following the year in which the candidate passed his preliminary examination and was entered as a Student-at-Law. And in the case of "four year" students in the fourth or any subsequent year following the year in which the candidate passed his preliminary examination and was entered as a Student-at-Law.

(2). All examinations shall be held on the third Tuesday in October in each year, at Fredericton.

(3). No candidate, required to pass the intermediate examinations, shall be admitted to a final examination until the expiration of at least one year from his having passed the intermediate examinations.

(4). Every candidate for intermediate examination shall, at least four weeks before the time for such examination, file with the Secretary of the Barristers' Society a notice of his intention to apply for examination, stating which examination; and shall, prior to such examination, pay to the Secretary of the Barristers' Society the prescribed fee for such examination; and produce to the examiners, a Certificate from the Secretary of the Barristers' Society that he is entitled to be admitted to such examinations.

(5). Any person who has taken the Degree of Bachelor of Laws, or Bachelor of Civil Law, from some lawfully authorized College or University in Great Britain, Ireland, Canada, United States, or any other British Colony, shall not be required to pass the intermediate examinations.

(6). Any person who has passed the preliminary examination and been entered as a Student-at-Law as required by the Bye-Laws of the Society prior to Michaelmas Term, A. D. 1902, shall not be obliged to pass the intermediate examinations, but shall be entitled to admission as an Attorney-at-Law on passing the final examination as heretofore; but such Students may take the intermediate examinations and receive credit therefor.

(7). Any candidate at any intermediate examination who fails to make the required mark in not more than two of the subjects prescribed may, on payment of a fee of $5.00, have a supplemental examination on such subjects at the next regular examination; and if he pass on such conditional subjects he shall be considered as having passed such intermediate examination. Any candidate at any intermediate examination who fails to pass in more than two of the prescribed subjects shall be deemed to have wholly failed.

(8). Intermediate Examinations shall be under the direction and control of the Council of the Barristers' Society and shall be by written or printed questions to be answered in writing with such "vive voce" examinations as the examiners may require.

(9). The examinations prescribed by the Council shall be on the subjects following:

In the matter of the Estate of B. Wilmot Chase.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That B. Wilmot Chase, of the Parish of Manguerville, in the County of Sunbury and Province of New Brunswick, Carpenter, made, on the fourth day of August instant, an assignment to the undersigned Sheriff of the County of Sunbury, of all his estate, property and effects for the benefit of his Creditors, without preference, under the provisions of 58th Victoria, Chapter 6, and amending Acts, of the Province of New Brunswick; and that a meeting of the Creditors of the said B. Wilmot Chase will be held at the Record Office Building at Oromocto, in the County of Sunbury, on SATURDAY the twenty-third day of AUGUST instant, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the appointment of Inspectors and giving directions with reference to the disposal of the said Estate.

All Creditors are required to file their claims, duly proven, with the Assignee, within three months from the date of this notice, unless further time be allowed by a Judge of the Supreme or County Court; and that all claims not filed within the time limited, or such further time, if any, as may be allowed by any such Judge, shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of the Estate; and the Assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the Estate as if no such claim existed, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtor therefor.

Dated at Oromocto, in the County of Sunbury, this twelfth day of August, A. D. 1902.
