same. The chasing of geese, brant or ducks by power, shall

1. The use of sink boxes, so called, in shooting geese or brant is restricted to the hours between daylight and twelve o'clock noon each day during the hunting season, and the same can only be used by a person having a license therefor issued by the Surveyor General. The person obtaining such license shall use one sink box only, and shall have his name and the number of his license displayed in plain sight on the box. Immediately after twelve o'clock noon each day the owner of such sink box shall remove the same from the shooting ground or sink it out of sight; any sink box not licensed will be destroyed by any Game Warden or other person finding the same, and any box licensed and left on the shooting ground after the hours herein named may also be destroyed by any Game Warden or other person finding the or other boats, to cause them to fly or drive them away from their feeding grounds is strictly prohibited. The fee for the license above herein mentioned shall be $1.00 per year.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in "The Game Act, 1909," and amending Act, it shall be lawful for the residents of the Parish of Grand Manan, in the County of Charlotte, to shoot black duck within the boundaries of said Parish between the first day of October in any year and the first day of March in the next following year.

3. That the limit under the Game Act for duck shooting shall be twenty birds per gun per day.

4. That the limit under the Game Act for partridge and woodcock respectively shall be ten birds per gun per day, and that no other means of killing partridges and woodcock shall be allowed except by shooting.

5. The sale of woodcock is prohibited between the date of this Regulation and the 15th day of September, A. D. 1912
Dated the 7th day of April, A. D. 1911

W. C. H. GRIMMER,
Surveyor General.
