

NOTICE OF GRANTING LETTERS PATENT.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, A. D. 1911, incorporating T. Reginald Robertson, Barrister-at-Law; Henry Havelock Munro, Barrister-at-Law; Ray Milner, Student; Frederick Bruce Arnaud, Clerk; and Francis Paul Hamilton Layton, Student-at-Law; all of the City and County of Halifax, in the Province of Nova Scotia, for the following purposes, namely:

To purchase, acquire and take over as a going concern the business of buying, packing, selling and dealing in lobsters, heretofore carried on by E. Paturel at or near Shediac, New Brunswick, and the assets of the said business, including said E. Paturel's lobster factory at Barachois, in the County of Westmorland aforesaid, and all plants, stock in trade, implements, and utensils, and licenses in connection therewith.

To purchase, acquire and take over as a going concern any businesses of a like nature to the one referred to in the preceding paragraphs in the Province of New Brunswick, as the company may decide upon, and all assets thereof, including factories used in connection with any such businesses and the plant, implements, utensils and licenses in connection therewith.

To carry on, in all its branches, the business of packing, canning, buying, selling and dealing in lobsters, crustaceans and all kinds of fish, and all kinds of meats, and of fishing for lobsters, crustaceans, and all kinds of fish, and of manufacturing and dealing in all kinds of cans and cases for containing any of the commodities aforesaid.

To acquire, manufacture, buy, sell, dispose of, consign to agents for sale, and deal in all kinds of goods, chattels and merchandise as the company shall see fit, and to engage in and carry on such business as is usually engaged in by merchants, commission merchants, ship brokers, dealers, traders and manufacturers.

To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights.

To acquire, and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this company.

To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets, d'invention, licenses, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property rights, or information so acquired.

To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company.

To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this company.

Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock in trade.

To purchase, acquire, improve, operate, sell, mortgage or dispose of all lands, real estate, premises, buildings, houses, shops, factories, establishments, works, plant and machinery which may be deemed necessary or expedient or desirable for any of the purposes of the Company.

To borrow or raise money upon mortgage or charge or all or any part of the property, real or personal, of the company.

To acquire the good will of any business or part of same within the objects of the Company, and any real or personal property, privileges, rights and contracts appertaining to the same and in connection with any such purchase to undertake and assume the liabilities of any company, association, partnership or person.

To apply from time to time any part of the funds, stock (whether common or preferred), bonds, debentures, and other obligations of the Company for any purpose of the Company.

To invest the moneys of the Company upon such securities (other than the shares of the Company) as may be from time to time determined.

To construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works, necessary or convenient for the purposes of the company.

To purchase, construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, steamers, boats, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, lobster factories and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out, or control thereof.

To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this company.

To adopt such means of making known the products, goods, wares and merchandise of the company as may seem expedient and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art, or interest by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations.

To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or other wise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the company.

To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The Company hereby incorporated shall be liable for the debts and obligations of the said E. Paturel, existing at the time of taking over the said property, and may be sued for the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction, by the name of "E. Paturel Company, Limited," with a total capital stock of Seven thousand dollars, divided into Seven thousand shares of One dollar each; and with the head office of the Company at Shediac, in the County of Westmorland, with permission to hold the annual and special meetings of the said Company, and also special meetings of the Directors, from time to time, at the City of Halifax, in the Province of Nova Scotia.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary, at Fredericton, the thirteenth day of January, A. D. 1911.

JAMES K. FLEMMING,
Provincial Secretary.
