IN THE SUPREME COURT—KING'S BENCH DIVISION

In the Matter of Adams, Burns Company, Limited, and its Winding Up under "The Companies Winding Up Act," Chapter 99 of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts.

UPON reading the Petition of Patrick J. Burns and James P. Byrne, the Curators of Adams, Burns Company, Limited, dated the first day of October instant, with their account of the distribution and disposal of the balance of the assets of the company, pursuant to directions of an order made by me on the twenty-eighth day of August last past, directing the same, and as to the publication of the notice therein required to be published, and the affidavits of the Curators and of George Gilbert in verification thereof; and upon hearing Mr. George Gilbert, Solicitor for the Petitioners, and no other persons appearing; and it appearing to me that the notice directed to be published by said order of the twenty-eighth day of August last, has been duly published; and it also appearing to me that all of the Creditors of the Company have been paid in full, and that, after the payment of all proper costs and disbursements, ordered to be paid, all the balance of the assets of the Company have been distributed ratably amongst the shareholders of the Company; and it further appearing to me that it is the desire of the Shareholders of the Company that the Company should be wound up and dissolved; and it appearing to me that all and every act, matter and thing has been done which is necessary to entitle the Company to have such an order made:

I do hereby Order and Direct that the said Adams, Burns Company, Limited, be and it is hereby dissolved.

And I do further Order and Direct that this order be published in the Royal Gazette of New Brunswick in two consecutive issues thereof, on or before the tenth day of November next.

Dated this 14th day of October, A. D. 1912.
